

SOOTHING ACHING HEARTS AT $21 EACH GETS WOMAN INTO HANDS OF THE LAW

Offer to Girl Detective From Health Department Followed by Issue of Warrant.

To prescribe love charms for heart-ache is a violation of the Missouri statutes, according to the official ruling by which a warrant was issued Wednesday for the arrest of Mrs. Augusta Pelinski of 3620 North Ninth street. She is charged with unlawfully "holding herself out as a physician."

Miss Agnes Roach, who is in the service of the Health Department, went to Mrs. Pelinski a few days ago, after reading an advertisement in a German paper. "My heart troubles me," said Miss Roach in explaining her visit. "Mrs. Pelinski looked in her caller's eyes and held her hands. 'Your heart has been bewitched,' she said. 'Such a case as yours does not need medicine,' Mrs. Pelinski went on. 'Ah, no; it needs love and sympathy. I will give you a love charm.'"

Miss Roach said she would be charmed to have the charm, and that she would call again in a few days to get it. She saw a man leave the house as she did, and believes that he followed her all the way home. She called later, and was told by Mrs. Pelinski that the love charm would cost her $21. Then the woman detective went back to the Health Department office and prepared her application for a warrant. Mrs. Pelinski has been fined once on a similar charge.

PIERCE FILES MOTION OF IMMUNITY FROM PROSECUTION

Asserts That Statute of Limitations
Has Run in His Case.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
AUSTIN, Tex., Dec. 1.—Upon the conclusion of reading the indictment charging Henry Clay Pierce with false swearing, which was the first proceeding in the District Court this morning, the defense filed a motion of immunity from prosecution, claiming that limitation had run in case of the defendant as though he had been a citizen of Texas. The defense claims that as the defendant was not a resident of the State, he was not, although absent, a fugitive from justice, and that as prosecution would be barred by limitation against a citizen of the State, he also should be immune.

The court granted a recess until 11:30 o'clock to enable the State to prepare its answer. This promises to be one of the most important questions in the trial. Counsel in the plea for immunity for prosecution set up the fact that Henry Clay Pierce was involuntary witness in an anti-trust suit filed against the Waters-Pierce Oil Co. in the State of Missouri and that he is granted personal protection from prosecution in matters which he was obliged to testify involuntarily. The motion with State's answer will be submitted to the jury. Court ruled this morning that the State will not be permitted to make any statement in presenting the case that it cannot connect up with the affidavit.

MOURMELON, France, Dec. 1.—Battling against a wind of nearly forty miles an hour, Hubert Latham, the French aviator, ascended a height of between 15 and 20 meters (about 1600 feet), in his aeroplane, beating the official world's record.

Woman Had Lived There.
As learned that another of the sons of this same house was Vir- vardlaw, Mrs. Reed's aunt, who told the young woman property, she was now being held by the range authorities until she can clear reason for her visit there. She has yet told.

Police learned that the young woman was found dead in a bath room, and that she had left a will of her property to the woman now as a witness. The woman had lived there, and evaded question after that was aimed at her to learn of her past. Little by little son was got from her. Sergeant told that Miss Wardlaw, a lawyer, who lives in East third street, Flatbush, and who was sent to Brooklyn for information, told Miss Wardlaw that she had been born five weeks before Virvardlaw consented that 5000 be set aside for the care of the son. Reed was insured for $20,000 and attorney want to the cottage and that her baby had been born to St. Christopher's Hospital. The mother, the hospital said, never came to see it.

Was in Bed.
Attorney told that Mrs. Wardlaw was dead and the son signed and witnessed. It did not seem to take any in- what was going on. She was at the time.

GLEASON BIDS $125,000 FOR THE BIG FIGHT

Largest Offer Ever Made for a Championship Pugilistic Contest.

SCENE IS NOT CHOSEN
So Many Want Jeffries-Johnson Mill, Selection of Battleground Is Postponed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Bids for the championship fight between James J. Jeffries and Jack Johnson were opened this afternoon, in Hoboken, N. J., and because of the numerous and large offers made for the fight, it was decided to postpone the selection of the battle-ground for a period of 24 hours. The offers for the fight were the largest ever made for a prize-ring encounter. The bids were opened in the presence of Jack Johnson and his manager, George Little; Sam Berger, representing Jim Jeffries, who was absent; Thomas J. McCarey of Los Angeles, Edward Gleason of San Francisco, John J. Gleason of San Francisco, E. M. Rickard of Nevada and many well-known New York sporting men.

Graney Makes Three Bids.
Graney, representing the Tuxedo Athletic Club of San Francisco, made a bid involving three different propositions. In his first proposition, Graney offered 50 per cent of the gross receipts, with a guarantee of $75,000, the management to have sole ownership of the picture privileges; the second was 80 per cent of the gross receipts, with a $70,000 guarantee and an offer of $20,000 for one-third of the picture proceeds; and the third proposition was 90 per cent of the gross receipts, with no guarantee.

Graney agreed, if the offer was accepted, to build a pavilion seating 15,000 people in or within five miles of San Francisco. John Gleason of San Francisco, in combination with James Cofforth, submitted a bid of $125,000 for a fight on July 4 at either the Colma Athletic Club or Ocean View, or San Francisco, reserving full rights to the picture proceeds. Gleason agreed, if the bid was accepted, to immediately deposit a check for $20,000. Gleason made a second proposition offering a purse of $75,000 and 65-2-3 per cent of the picture receipts. A third proposition by Gleason provided an offer of 80 per cent of the gross receipts and 65-2-3 per cent of the picture receipts. Cofforth agreed to deposit $10,000 if the offer was accepted.

A cablegram was received from Hugh D. McIntosh of Australia, offering $27,500 to each of the fighters for a contest in this country; $40,000 to each fighter for a contest in either England or France; and $50,000 to each fighter for a contest in Australia. No check accompanied the offer and McIntosh's bid was not considered. E. M. Rickard of Elip, Nev., submitted a bid in which he offered $15,000 in cash and a check for $2000 now for a fight on July 4, in either Utah or California, and a cash purse of $10,000 and 58-2-3 per cent of the receipts of the moving pictures. If the bid was accepted Rickard agreed to deposit within sixty days $20,000, and the remaining $50,000 forty-eight hours before the fight.

Thomas J. McCarey of the Pacific Athletic Club of Los Angeles offered the receipts of the entire house and 50 per cent of the moving picture receipts, or a purse of $10,000 in cash and 50 per cent of the moving picture receipts.

Freddie Martin, Gotham Social Arbiter, Says Smart Set Dumped Into Sea Wouldn't Make Ripple

Man Who Tells Society "How and When and Why"
Talks About It.

EXCLUSIVES DEFENDED
Devotees Need Brains, and Hearts and Wealth Is Not a Password.

FREDDIE MARTIN is in town. His full name is Frederick Townsend Martin, but he prefers to be called Freddie.

If you do not know him, or do not at least know who he is, it is a sign that, socially at least, you have not arrived. For Freddie Martin is the social arbiter of New York.

What Freddie says is accepted as law by men and women who believe that the acme of social achievement is to do the right thing in the right place, at the right time in the right way.

If Freddie says you are correct, that settles it. There is no appeal from his decision. He is the Supreme Court of Good Form.

Freddie was born in society and he has been there ever since. He is the social successor of Ward McAllister whose scepter ruled the fashionable world of the continent for more than a generation. He is a brother of that Bradley Martin who set a famous hall rolling. He is an uncle of the Countess of Craven.

For Freddie there is "Welcome" on the doormat of every court in Europe. As he expresses it he has made "society" his life-work. His only calling is to make society better, he says, and he takes his mission very seriously.

Freddie has no place in the Daily Routine of This Man.

THERE is nothing frivolous about Freddie Martin. He wouldn't walk across the street to attend a "million-key dance." He thinks a lively stable is the proper place for horses to dip, and he doesn't think it good form to dance cotillions on butterfies.

Mr. Martin is short and stout, and a trifle more than 50. His mustache and the fringe of hair which remains to him are iron gray. At the Jefferson Hotel Wednesday he wore a dark suit with the coat rather short, a medium-high turn-over collar and a black four-hand tie. A conspicuous feature was a heavy gold link watch-chain extending from pocket to pocket of his vest without being passed through the intervening buttonholes. The only other thing he wears is a gold stickpin in his cravat.

And what do you think this unquestioned leader of society in America says about the "smart set?" Here are his very words:

"If the social life of every capital in the world, of every city in America, were to be dumped into the sea, they would not cause a ripple."

St. Louis Society May Be as Attractive as That in Paris.

VERY serious was Freddie when he said this. After pausing a moment, the idea sank in, he continued:

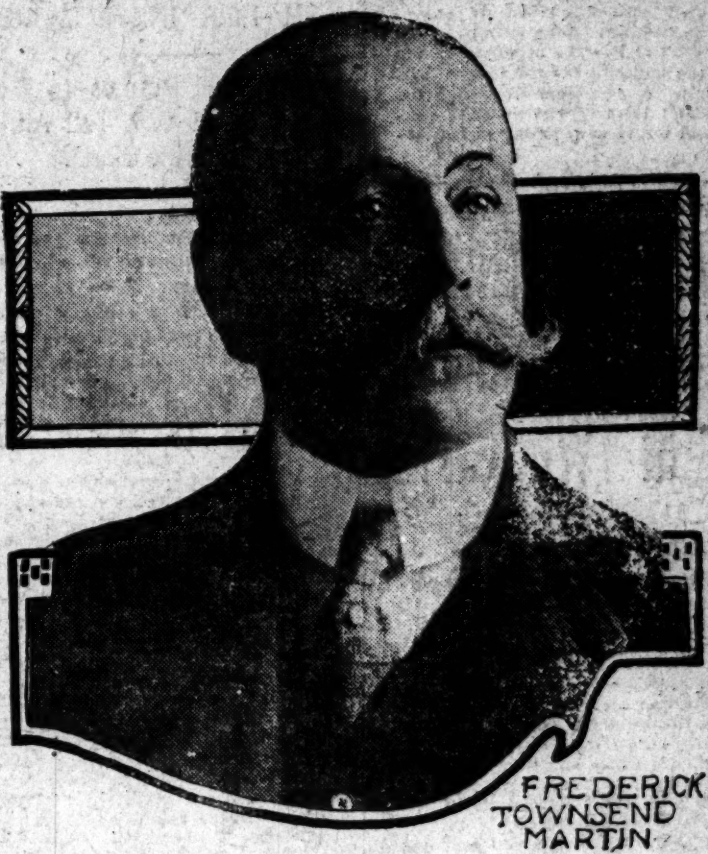

"I see no reason why the society of St. Louis should not be as attractive as that of London, Paris or even New York. In fact, I believe it is. My reason for saying this, although I have never before been in St. Louis, is that civilized men and women are the same the world over. The accident of place does not make one society more attractive than another."

"I have no doubt that I could have quite as good a time in St. Louis as in any capital, for the simple reason that it is brain, not money, which makes society, and no city can corner the brain-supply of the world."

"I have been asked if society in America would not be improved and made more interesting if the men could be induced to play a greater part in our social life. I do not think so. In fact, I consider it a blessing that they do not. Our country has no idle class. Our men have little time for society. Their time is spent in making money to enable their women to 'do' society. Men are interested only in those things with which they come in daily contact. After spending his day at the stock ticker or in other business pursuits, the American is not socially inclined at night."

Leisure Class Causes Decay in Social Fabric of Nation.

"THIS is my mind, is just the thing which makes our society superior to that of other countries. Where there is a leisure class of men who inherit social positions, there is always a decadent society. Men of leisure really have no position in the world no matter how rich they may be."

ST. LOUISAN IS THOUGHT TO BE ZELAYA VICTIM

Nicaraguan Wife of L. D.
Peugnet Fears for His Safety.

Louis D. Peugnet, son of Ernest Peugnet, of 4345 Lindell boulevard, is believed to be a supporter of Gen. Estrada, revolutionary leader in Nicaragua, and his wife, now in the United States, is greatly alarmed at the recent lack of news from him.

Mrs. Peugnet, who was formerly Senator Luis Vivas, daughter of a wealthy Spanish resident of Nicaragua, left St. Louis last Sunday after a brief visit with her father-in-law and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Marie Von Windeger, a bride of a few weeks.

"If the social life of every capital in the world, of every city in America, were to be dumped into the sea, they would not cause a ripple."

For this reason, she was not greatly worried over the first reports of the present outbreak. Recently reading that President Zelaya has imprisoned several Americans, Mrs. Peugnet has come to fear that her husband may be one of the prisoners, or may have been forced by circumstances to join Estrada's army.

He had a part in a small revolution which took place soon after he went to Nicaragua six years ago as representative of several coffee firms. He rescued a besieged family, whose youngest daughter afterward became his wife. Since that time his wife and his business have kept him aloof from revolutionary movements.

His two sons, Louis and Ernest, 14 and 12 years old, are pupils in a New Hampshire academy. Mrs. Peugnet has gone to New York to confer with her brother-in-law, Gen. Pellos, Nicaraguan diplomatic envoy in Italy. He hurried back to this continent when he heard of the outbreak. She will try to get news of her husband and assurance of his safety through Gen. Pellos.

MISS EIDER GETS BIGAMY WARRANT FOR MRS. DOXEY

County Prosecutor Issues Warrant on Eve of Woman's Nebraska Trial.

A warrant charging Dora E. Doxey with entering into a bigamous marriage with William J. Eider was issued by Prosecuting Attorney Shackelford of St. Louis County at Clayton Wednesday afternoon.

This was a victory for Miss Kate Eider of 322 Connecticut street, who told through the medium of the Post-Dispatch Tuesday how she had become a sufferer because of her inability to enlist the aid of men in office in unravelling the mystery of her brother's marriage and death.

Following the issuance of the warrant a deputy sheriff carrying a formal application for extradition papers was despatched to go to Jefferson City and obtain from Gov. Hadley a requisition necessary in bringing Mrs. Doxey from Columbia, Mo., where she is awaiting her trial Friday on a statutory charge preferred against her and Dr. Loren B. Doxey by Miss Eider.

TIPS IN CITY HOSPITAL OPEN WHISKY BOTTLE

Also Bring Better Food to Patients, Especially in the Tuberculosis Ward.

Superintendent W. C. G. Kirschner of the City Hospital admitted Wednesday that smoking and drinking beer and whiskey are committed by patients in the tuberculosis ward under his charge, and that it is the custom of such patients as are lucky enough to have money, to tip the details to supply them with better food than is furnished the other inmates.

"What is worse," said Dr. Kirschner, "I see no way of stopping these practices. Conditions throughout the City Hospital are not only in the tuberculosis ward, are not all that they should be. I know what is going on, but my hands are tied through lack of money. The appropriation for maintaining the hospital is far from adequate."

William J. Schaefele of 2317 Franklin avenue was a patient in the tuberculosis ward for three days, and left because of dissatisfaction with the food and indignation at the extortion he declared was practiced by details who engaged to procure better viands for him.

One detail, he said, told him that for the right consideration he could have in the ward a bottle of whisky put on ice in the icebox of the ward, subject to the call of his thirst.

"These details," said Dr. Kirschner, "are not paid employees, but convalescent patients, and I have little authority over them. I know that patients smoke in the ward and I stop it whenever I can, but I can't be there always. I don't believe the patients keep drinks in the hospital iceboxes, but it is true that friends or details sometimes smuggle in bottles of beer or whisky. We have tried to stop this, but without entire success."

"I see nothing wrong in a detail's accepting a tip to procure different food for a patient if he does not like the ordinary hospital fare. There is so much of this done that the hospital cook is often busy at noon cooking steaks and ham and chops for those who tip. As for routine hospital food, I will back it for variety, nourishment and skillful preparation against the fare of any similar institution in the city."

ONE DEAD, ANOTHER WOUNDED IN FIGHT ABOUT TAIT'S RELIGION

Three Georgians Quarrel at Church, but Question Is Left Unsolved.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
MACON, Ga., Dec. 1.—Sol Brown is dead, and Andrew McCarty is badly wounded, the result of a quarrel at Pleasant Hill Church, near here, over the religion of President Taft.

After services were over and as the congregation was going home, Brown, McCarty, Wheeler and others began to discuss Taft's religious views. Wheeler insisted that Taft was not a believer in the divinity of Jesus Christ. Brown and McCarty declared that the President did believe in Christ.

The argument became so heated that Brown and McCarty attacked Wheeler. The latter drew a pistol and killed Brown and wounded Wheeler. Wheeler escaped.

FRISCO AND R. I. SEPARATED; YOAKUM GOES WITH HAWLEY

Reid-Moore Syndicate Quits Frisco—
H. U. Mudge President of R. I.—
Winchell to Succeed Davidson.

ROADS PLAN WITH BUSCH TO USE THE FREE BRIDGE

With the Chicago and Eastern Illinois and the Manufacturers' Railway the Combination
Will Break Away From the Terminal Association.

Benjamin F. Yoakum, chairman of the executive committee of the Rock Island Railway Co., and his associates, resigned as directors and officers of the company, Wednesday, according to dispatches from New York. This was the final step in the dissolution of the Rock Island-Frisco combination. William H. Moore, Daniel G. Reid and Francis L. Hine also resigned as directors of the Frisco.

H. U. Mudge was elected president of the Rock Island. Definite announcement was made that Mr. Yoakum, B. F. Winchell and their associates have purchased the Frisco system. It is understood that Mr. Winchell is to become president of the Frisco.

While these changes were being announced in New York it was learned at the City Hall Wednesday that the Manufacturers Railway Co., of which Adolphus and August Busch are the principal owners, has made a proposition to the city to build the St. Louis and East St. Louis railroad approaches for the Free Bridge.

Adolphus Busch is a member of the syndicate of St. Louis people that will control the Frisco Railroad. The only concession requested by the Manufacturers' Railway is that the south division of the St. Louis approach be erected in second street to connect with its tracks, instead of in First street.

It was also stated at the City Hall that the Frisco, Rock Island and the Chicago & Eastern Illinois roads have agreed with the Manufacturers' Railway Co. to use the free bridge as an independent means of getting access to St. Louis.

Will Quit Terminal.
The roads, it is said, will withdraw from the Terminal association, and use the facilities of the Manufacturers' Railway. The Chicago & Eastern Illinois road, which has been a part of the Rock Island-Frisco system, will build a line south from Park ill. to a point near East St. Louis, thence a spur to the east approach of the free bridge. This road is one of the owners of the Thebes Bridge, and can make connections there with the Memphis branch of the Frisco.

If these plans are carried out the Rock Island and Chicago & Eastern Illinois trains that now enter St. Louis over the Merchants' Bridge will come in over the free bridge.

While the Rock Island and Frisco systems are to be operated as separate roads, there is said to be nothing in their understanding with the Manufacturers' Railway that will interfere with the plans that have just been completed in New York.

The proposal of the Manufacturers' Railway to build the bridge approaches and buy land for them is said to have been made by letter to a city official. The capital stock of the Manufacturers' Railway is to be increased to $20,000,000 to carry out these plans, it is said. The company was granted an extensive franchise several years ago.

Owned by St. Louisans.
James Campbell, who has long been identified with the Frisco, resides in New York, where they arranged the financial part of the transaction by which the Frisco has become a St. Louis-owned property. Millions of dollars have been transferred from St. Louis financial institutions to New York during the past few days to pay for Frisco stock.

William H. Moore, who has been one of the financial powers in the Rock Island-Frisco combination, is said to have held $20,000,000 of Frisco stock, which the St. Louis syndicate had to buy. Mr. Yoakum, who is one of the powers in the St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexico Railroad, is said to be making plans to take that property over to the Frisco.

The St. Louis Union Trust Co. has long been interested in the Texas road, which will give the Frisco, when control is acquired, a through line to the Mexican border.

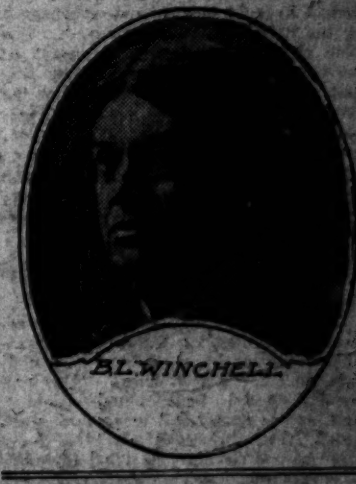

The threat of suits against the Rock Island and Frisco combination in Oklahoma and Texas for an alleged violation of the anti-trust laws, which prohibit the common ownership of parallel and competing roads, started the move to separate the two lines. Mr. Yoakum is said to have promised the officials of these two states almost a year ago that he would break up the combination if the suits were held off.

PEERS' ACTION IS CALLED THEIR POLITICAL SUICIDE

London Paper Believes Rejection of Budget Will End Their Rule.

PREMIER TO PROTEST

Prepares His Remonstrance Against Invasion of the Rights of Commons.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—Premier Asquith announced in the House of Commons today that tomorrow he would offer a resolution asserting that the action of the House of Lords in refusing to pass into law the financial provisions made by the lower chamber for the expenses of the year was a breach of the constitution and an usurpation of the rights of the House of Commons.

When the Premier entered the chamber this afternoon the supporters of the government rose to their feet and greeted him with ringing cheers. Immediately following the conclusion of routine business the Prime Minister took the floor.

As soon as he concluded, the house adjourned. In introducing his resolution tomorrow Premier Asquith will go exhaustively into the question of the respective privileges of the House of Lords and the House of Commons, and announce in detail the Government's intentions. He also will fix the day of prorogation, which probably will be next Friday.

Former Premier Balfour, leader of the opposition in the Commons, will reply, setting forth the view that the new and important departures in public policy represented by the budget bill should be submitted to the people. John Redmond, head of the Irish party, and possibly one representative of the labor party will follow with speeches.

The editorials in the morning papers are all written from a party standpoint, and addressed entirely to the election in the approaching election campaign.

As an indication of the view of the situation held by Radical politicians and the Radical newspapers, the caption descriptive of the final scenes as printed by one of the newspapers in the largest type reads:

"The Suicide of the House of Lords." The political crisis caused by the unprecedented action of the House of Lords in refusing its consent to the Government's Budget is developing rapidly.

Cabinet Meets Early. The Cabinet, which had already determined on the policy it would pursue in the event Lord Lansdowne's amendment carried, had an unusually early meeting today to confirm its decision and consider the wording of a motion which Premier Asquith will ask the House of Commons to adopt tomorrow.

All the members of the Cabinet were present at the meeting, which excited so much popular interest that a great crowd gathered in the vicinity of 10 Downing street, the official residence of the Premier.

The fact that there was not a remote possibility even that the crowd would learn what transpired within did not discourage the throng in the street, whose numbers became so great finally that a large force of police was summoned to prevent a possible demonstration.

The ministers passed through the street to the Premier's residence undisturbed by suffragettes and encouraged by the cheers of their supporters. The time of the delivery of the speech of prorogation, the substance of which was decided on at yesterday's meeting of the Cabinet, will depend on the time occupied for debate on the Premier's motion, which commences tomorrow.

It is expected that this discussion will be brief, the speeches by Premier Asquith and the opposition by Balfour and Redmond caused many sore but victim was soon able to work.

The great efficacy of Hood's Sarsaparilla in cases of blood-poisoning is shown by many convincing testimonials, as by the following: "My husband suffered from blood-poisoning, and sore spread all over his right hand. Two fingers of his left hand were also affected. He tried all sorts of ointments, but they failed. At my suggestion he took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and was soon able to work again."

Mrs. Jane Colgan, 75 Garden St., Lawrence, Mass.

Remember there is no real substitute for Hood's Sarsaparilla. If urged to buy any preparation said to be "just as good" you may be sure it is inferior, costs less to make, and yields the seller a larger profit.

SHOULD THERE BE ANY ARGUMENT?

Ask your doctor to show you three or four of his cases of blood-poisoning by skin and bone, tuberculosis, or any other treatment. If he has been successful in curing Consumption, he is entitled to your confidence, but let the cured people do the talking.

This is what one has to say: "I was sick a year and a half before I heard of Eckman's Alternative. Physicians pronounced my case Consumption and hopeless. The trouble began with a cold and later affected the lower part of my left lung. It became so deep seated that I penetrated my ribs. Altogether, I had 18 different conditions that discharged. My aunt recommended Eckman's Alternative, and today, 11 years later, I am in perfect health."

HISTORY OF THE BUDGET FOR 1909-10 THAT THE HOUSE OF LORDS REJECTED

DAVID LLOYD-GEORGE, Chancellor of the Exchequer, presented the Liberal Government's budget for the fiscal year 1909-1910 to the House of Commons on April 23 last. The Chancellor estimated that the revenues for the year would be $741,500,000, and the expenditures $820,750,000. The trouble was caused by his methods of meeting this deficit.

The Budget made accumulated wealth, land and the liquor business bear the burden of the deficit—$79,250,000—caused chiefly by the old age pensions and the race with Germany's building dreadsnaughts.

INCREASED income taxes, death, estate and legacies duties, a tax of 20 per cent on future increases in the value of lands due to the enterprise of the community, taxes on motors to be devoted to keeping up the roads, and stamp taxes on sales of property were the principal levies on wealth.

By a vote of 379 to 149, an unexpectedly large majority, the Commons passed the bill on Nov. 4, last.

WHILE the second reading was moved in the House of Lords on Nov. 23, Lord Lansdowne, leader of the opposition, offered an amendment that it be rejected because "this House is not justified in giving its consent to this bill until it has been submitted to the judgment of the country."

The Lords adopted this amendment by 360 to 75. The people, who will vote on the question soon, will give a large majority for the budget, and possibly the House of Lords will be reformed. A possible plan is for the King to appoint a sufficient number of Liberal peers to overcome the Conservative majority if the Conservatives should refuse to acquiesce in the verdict of the people.

Arrangement being confined to the leaders of the Unionist, Liberal, Labor and Irish parties.

Lloyd-George Unperturbed. While the House of Lords was deciding the fate of his budget, and possibly his own future career, David Lloyd-George spent the evening quietly dining with friends at a restaurant in the Strand.

Among the minor speeches during last night's debate, Lord Courtney, in speaking against Lord Lansdowne's resolution, made a curious point. He reminded the peers that by violating the established usage, they were creating a precedent which might be carried far.

For example, they held their seats in the House of Lords by virtue of writs of summons.

"If, under the Minister's advice, these writs were withheld," he said, "no court existed which could enforce them, and the peers would have no right of entry into the House. They might meet in Trafalgar Square, but could get no legal redress."

Parliament will be prorogued doubtless until the middle of January, but the choice of a date is a mere formality, as the present House comes to an end by dissolution early in the year.

The election campaign will open in earnest on Friday, when David Lloyd-George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Winston Spencer Churchill, president of the Board of Trade, who are held chiefly responsible for the budget, and Lord Lansdowne and J. Austen Chamberlain, the most ardent opponents of the Government's measure, will deliver speeches, and, with the exception of a brief respite at Christmas, will continue the fight until election day.

In many respects the impending struggle will be the most interesting in the parliamentary history of England. Some of the peers have decided to take the unusual course of stumping the country to explain their action in voting against the budget. This course is believed by many of the lords to be imperative following the criticism which fell from the lips of some of the staunchest of the Unionists during the recent debate.

Lloyd-George, Churchill and other radicals can be depended upon for fighting speeches in favor of the budget and against the lords, while Sir Edward Grey, Foreign Minister; Richard Burdon Haldane, Minister of War, and other ministers will supply more moderate ammunition and free trade arguments.

The Unionists, although not so well equipped with orators, are determined upon a stern campaign. They will devote their energies to the exposition of tariff reform and a denunciation of socialists towards which they will claim the budget is a first step.

The suffragettes, too, who have been comparatively quiet for a time, have been only reserving their resources for a crucial effort.

The Laborites, all strong supporters of the budget, will meet tomorrow to arrange their campaign and efforts are being made, and with some success, to prevent a three-cornered contest.

As a part of this program, the Laborites are withdrawing their candidates from those districts where the Liberalists have the better chance of victory, while the Liberals are doing a similar service for the Labor party where the latter is stronger.

The election in Ireland will be the most interesting since 1888. The Unionists have decided to contest most of the Nationalists' seats with the idea of defeating the Nationalist treasury.

Police of Two Cities Work on Death of Mysterious Woman

Considerable money had been lent on them. She also said that Mrs. Sneed owned three pieces of real estate—one in Virginia, one in Ohio and one in Georgia. All three pieces of property, she woman said, were worth $15,000 and showed him a letter in which $4000 was offered for one of the pieces of real estate.

When Mrs. Sneed was found she was nude in the bathroom. Her legs were doubled up at the knees. On the floor was a pile of clothing and pinned to them was this note:

"Last year my little daughter died; other near and dear ones have gone before. I have been prostrated with illness for a long time. When you read this I will have committed suicide. Do not grieve for me. Rejoice with me that death brings a blessed relief from pain and sufferings greater than I can bear."

"O. W. N. SNEED."

An autopsy was held at the Morgue in Orange. It was found that the young woman had died from drowning. Her body was greatly impoverished, the doctors said, and showed that she had undergone a severe illness. In life she had evidently been a very pretty young woman about 24 years old, with long yellow hair that hung below her waist.

MEN WHO STOLE FOR SUGAR TRUST GOT $15 WEEKLY

Evidence Showed That Envelopes Contained $3 More Than Was Marked.

CASH FOR INSPECTORS

Man on Trial Refuses to Be "Goat" and Will Tell All Facts on the Stand.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—With the resumption today of the trial in the United States Circuit Court of James F. Bendoragel, Oliver Spitzer and four other former employees of the American Sugar Refining Co., charged with conspiracy to defraud, there were indications that the Government counsel intended in the present action to go deep into occurrences of a series of years at the Williamsburg sugar docks.

Further evidence to support the prosecution's charges that men in the sugar company's employment had been systematically defrauding the Government out of duties on sugar was presented today.

Bendoragel declines to be made the "goat" by the Sugar Trust, and if the word of his counsel is correctly interpreted he may testify for the Government before his trial is concluded.

$15 Paid Weekly. This development, one of the many legal phases involving the corporation now under Federal fire, came when a witness testified that $15—sometimes a little more—was what employees of the Sugar Trust were paid to be crooked.

In the face of this testimony, Bendoragel conferred with his lawyer, George W. Beards, who, in turn, made this announcement:

"Mr. Bendoragel was an employee and what he did, he did under orders. In this case he will not shield anyone."

"The idea that has gone forth that the Sugar Trust is putting up for his defense is wrong. The company is not contributing a cent for it. He did not receive a salary of $30,000 per year, as has been said. When he takes the stand he will conceal nothing."

Cash Given to Men in Uniform. The evidence which brought this turn in the case was given by Andrew J. Mallen, who, up to 1907, was employed in the cashier's office of the Havermeyer & Elder refinery in Williamsburg. Bendoragel, he said, was in charge of the office.

"Did you ever see Bendoragel pay cash to men in the uniform of the Custom House, who came to his office?" asked Winifred T. Dennison of counsel for the Government.

"Yes," was the answer. "What form was this money in?" "It was in bank notes taken from the safe in the office. I never saw vouchers for it nor heard of any." Mallen replied.

Mallen testified further that John R. Coyle, Edward A. Boyle, Patrick Hennessy and Jean Voelker, weighers and checkers among the men accused, were paid in envelopes marked $12 for the week.

But their envelopes contained $15. Later, when the salaries of this class of men were raised to $15, they got $18 in their envelopes, though the regular pay for their positions was marked on the outside of the envelope at $15.

Not a "Cure-all"

Separate Remedies, Each Devised for the Treatment of a Particular Ailment.

There is no "cure-all" among the Rexall Remedies. There are different and separate medicines, each one devised for a certain human ailment or class of ailments closely allied.

For instance, Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are recommended for the positive relief of stomach irritation, indigestion, flatulence and dyspepsia. They are rich in Bismuth-Subnitrate, Pepsin and Carminatives. They are prepared by special processes which perfect and enhance the great remedial value of these well-known medicinal agents.

This remedy sells for 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00 per package. Every one suffering from stomach disorder should try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, inasmuch as they cost nothing if they do not satisfy.

Remember, the Wolff-Wilson Drug Co. store is the only store in St. Louis where these remedies may be obtained, and every one in need of medicine is urged to investigate and take advantage of the frank and generous manner in which they are sold.

MILLIONS STOLEN FROM BIG FOUR, LAWYER ASSERTS

Counsel for Mrs. Ford Declares Authorities Are Hiding Big Scandal.

ONE dime from every reader of the Post-Dispatch would make a fund large enough to give every poor child in St. Louis a Christmas gift and every sick and destitute person a bountiful Christmas dinner. Won't you contribute at least one dime to this beautiful Christmas hospitality?

Have You Sent a Dime to the Post-Dispatch Christmas Festival Fund?

Wrap your dime in paper so that its sharp edges will not cut through the envelope. Protect a quarter or half dollar by inserting it in a hole cut out of a piece of pasteboard. Do not send larger amounts of currency through the mails—send checks or money orders.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. CINCINNATI, Dec. 1.—William Thorn-dyke, attorney for Mrs. Ford, leading woman in the Warren Big Four shortage case, declared today that the case against his client was being pushed to obscure the real issue.

"When will the prosecutor uncover the real 'books in this transaction?' Why is so much interest displayed in a $1000 charge and a vulgar, personal scandal, while no attention whatever is given to the millions—I speak advisedly—that have disappeared from the coffers of the Big Four? I know that the Ford case is only a side issue. Wait for the big show."

"Do you really mean millions?" "Why," he replied, disgusted, "every one knows that."

Wrote to Cooke's Son. County Prosecutor Fricks is still investigating the Warren-Cooke-Ford love triangle. It has been discovered that Mrs. Ford not only wrote to Warren and Cooke, threatening them, but that she also wrote to Cooke's sons, telling them she would keep their father from their mother, and wired to Mrs. Cooke.

The following letter, dated Jan. 20, 1908, in Chicago, was written by Mrs. Ford to Mr. Cooke in it she threatens to expose the "Cincy affair":

Maliam: Pop tells me that you have, at various times, prevented him from coming to me by locking him up in the flat, or a part of his wearing apparel, that would necessarily keep him. At no time have I tried in any way to keep Streetie from coming to you when he felt so disposed. I would not have come to Chicago had it not been that you, madam, told Mr. Warren that if we (Pop and I) must be together on our anniversary, I was to come here. When I left Cincy, I gave Mr. W. my word that I would not in any way annoy you unless you annoyed me first. If you remember, you were the first to telephone this hotel, which gives me the right to do as I please.

Pop told me that you force him to do by me as he does, by threats, saying that you will expose the Cincy affair, etc., and keep him from me longer than he would be otherwise, by your carrying on the way you do.

Now, madam, let me say right here that you and I must come to an understanding if you wish to meet me half way, all very well; if not, and you intend to use this club over him in forcing him to keep away from me, we will then have to settle matters in another way, and as I am fit.

Had Nothing to Lose. I have nothing to lose in exposing Cooke, while you have everything to lose; your son's whole future life, and no mother will do that which will blight your son's future prospects; no, not even for revenge. While with me, I have nothing to lose, but something to gain by exposing your children's father. I can at least get even for the wrong you have done me.

I will remain in Chicago and give you time to come to your senses, but if you don't see fit to, and still persist in keeping "Pop" from me, then you must make what comes, and rest assured you will hear from me in a way you little know. I love Streetie better than my own life, as you are well aware of at this time, and he, too, here letter is torn off, not to allow you to keep this man from me.

I am "Pop's" common-law wife in New York, and I have my rights, madame, as well as yourself, and if it is necessary for me to assert those rights, I shall do so. If you still keep up this same old grind, what I'll do to you will be a plenty. I can hurt you and your children for fair, so it is up to you if you don't care for your children's future—God knows that I do not. I will give all the publicity you wish.

Asked for "Pop's" Clothes. I forgot to say that I intend to have some of "Pop's" wearing apparel. He tells me that you refused to allow him to take away any of his clothes. Now, I am not asking you for all of them, but a part of them, and what's more, I intend to have them. Unless you allow him to bring them to me or send them, then I will use other means in possessing them.

You know me well enough by now that when I say I want some of "Pop's" clothes I will have them, so use your own pleasure. I'll get them, rest assured. It will do well for you to keep this letter, and I, too, will keep a copy, for you don't know how soon you may need it.

As I said before, if you still persist in using this club which you hold over "Pop" in keeping him away from me, then you may expect to hear from me—but if you will not try to force him in staying away from me, and let him come to me when he feels so disposed, then you and I will get along, but when you try anything like this with me, you will be good and sorry before I am through with you.

You can pay attention to this letter or ignore it; it's up to you for the last time you have kept Cooke from me.

Now, I am not jesting—I don't go crazy, writing by hand, jump up and down on the floor, let out a yell, whoop and pass it by like yourself. No, you will hear from me, and no difference what steps I take, you are to blame.

MRS. JEANNETTE FORD, New York City.

EVERYBODY IS HAPPY BUT THE POOREST POOR

Christmas tide is here. You can see it in the growing crowds in the shopping district, in the brighter lights in the shop windows, in the faces of those you meet. You can feel it, even, in the tinge of the air that tells of the snows to come, and makes you hope that on Santa's day the white flakes will pile up high outside your home, so that you can build a great, roaring fire on the hearth that will dim the candles on the tree.

You're beginning to plan how you will surprise your relatives with gifts. And the thought brings a glow to your heart and a smile to your lips. Which is why Christmas day is the greatest day of all the year. For it makes you forget your enemies and little bitter-nesses and only think of things fine and generous.

Do You Think of the Poor? But while you are thinking of these happy things have you ever stopped to wonder about the thousands in this city who cannot think of Christmas except to speculate blindly why it has been ordained that once every year the pinch of their poverty is accentuated by the happiness of others on Christmas day?

You say that it isn't a pleasant thought and you throw it off with a shrug of your shoulders. But you can make it a happy reflection if you will let it widen your Christmas spirit of giving so that it will include many others besides your relatives and friends—others who cannot thank you personally for what you give them, but who in their hearts will bless you all the more because they cannot meet you.

It is to give you an opportunity to give of your bounty to these that the Post-Dispatch Christmas Festival Association asks your aid. Through this association for the past 10 years thousands of the poor have had Christmas cheer on Christmas day.

EMBASSY BUILDINGS TO BE ADVOCATED AT CLUB DINNER

Mr. Clarence Jones and Frederick Townsend Martin of the American Embassy Association will be the hosts at a dinner, to which prominent St. Louis business men have been invited, at the Mercantile Club at 6 p. m. Wednesday. They will explain the objects of the association formed to promote national legislation which will empower the United States Government to purchase property and build embassy buildings in foreign capitals.

Mr. Martin says that the movement started when Dr. Eliot, president-emeritus of Harvard, was forced to decline the post of Minister to Great Britain because he was too poor to support the dignity of the position.

WIFE ON HORSE SHOOTSHUSBAND OUT JOY RIDING

Members of Party Return Fire and 20 Shots Are Exchanged —Auto Overturns.

OKMULGEE, Ok., Dec. 1.—When Mrs. B. Coleman, young and pretty, suspected her husband of paying attention to another woman, she hired a saddle horse, stuck a revolver in her belt and started to look for him. She met him in Mala street here "joy riding" with another woman.

When Coleman refused to get out of the automobile his wife opened fire, one bullet striking him in the spine. Another man and woman were in the machine and these, reinforced by the police, returned Mrs. Coleman's fire. More than twenty shots were exchanged. In the excitement the chauffeur tried to escape in the automobile, but ran it upon the curb and it overturned.

In the meantime Mrs. Coleman had dismounted and when the machine overturned it struck her and broke two of her ribs. This enabled the police to capture her. Her husband is not expected to live.

E. H. HARRIMAN'S ESTATE VALUED AT $149,000,000

State of New York Will Collect $1,490,000 From What Wizard Left.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Edward H. Harriman, when he died, was worth $149,000,000.

This became known when the appraisers appointed by the Surrogate's Court completed their estimate of his holdings.

Before the railroad wizard's death, and shortly after it, all sorts of estimates were made about his fortune, ranging from $50,000,000 to $250,000,000. But there were no means of telling even approximately how much wealth the mysterious little man had accumulated.

The State of New York, under the inheritance tax, will receive from Mr. Harriman's estate the comfortable sum of $1,490,000.

Mr. Harriman's fortune may have been more than $149,000,000, now discovered, however. It was said about the time of his death that he had distributed a large part of it to his children. This, though, was not confirmed, and it may be that the present estimate represents his total amassment during his wonderful career.

MISSOURIAN WHO HAS BUILT AN AEROPLANE WITH NEW FEATURES

J. N. SPARLING.

READY TO FLY
ACROSS RIVER IN NEW MONOPLANE

Missouri Inventor Has Built an Airship in Grafton Machine Shop.

J. N. Sparling of Kirksville, Mo., formerly division superintendent for a correspondence school with headquarters in East St. Louis, will attempt a flight across the Mississippi River at Grafton, Ill., in his monoplane this week if his engine arrives and all his plans work out according to expectations.

Sparling has been working on his monoplane for five months in the McClintock machine shop at Grafton, the top floor of which has been put entirely at his disposal. The machine has been completed for several weeks.

He is expecting a Curtiss engine by Wednesday and with a little time to install and test it, will be ready for a trip across the river Friday or Saturday.

The Sparling monoplane has a frame-work of spruce. The front or main supporting plane is 23 1/2 feet long and 7 feet wide. The rear plane which acts both as an additional support and as an up-and-down control, is 14 1/2 feet long and 5 feet wide. There is a six-foot propeller at the front of the machine situated just in front of the main plane. The engine is located at the front, just below the main supporting plane.

The central framework is 5 feet high in front by 3 feet wide and tapers until it is 18 inches square at the rear end. It is constructed of spruce strips, 2 1/2 inches, and is strengthened by cross wires. The operator's seat is situated in the central framework seven feet from the front of the machine.

The engine is a 40-horsepower, 8-cylinder Curtiss gasoline engine, weighing 180 pounds. Sparling will also carry a 30-gallon tank of gasoline, which will furnish enough power to carry the machine 200 miles.

The total weight of the machine, not including the operator, will be 400 pounds, which, he says, is the lightest flying machine in existence with the exception of Santos du Mont's, which weighs only 240 pounds. The Wright machine weighs 1160 pounds. With the gasoline and operator, Sparling figures on a weight under 600 pounds.

The machine is supported on bicycle wheels while on the ground, two in front and one in the rear. A spring for which Sparling has applied for a patent is located between the wheels and the framework as a shock absorber to diminish the jar in alighting.

Another feature which is original with Sparling consists of two balancing planes, situated one on either side back of the main supporting plane. They are self-adjusting and so arranged that they will maintain a perfect equilibrium. The steering apparatus is located above the central framework between the front and rear planes.

Sparling is a son of Dr. G. A. Sparling of Kirksville, Mo. He had all his training in the Kirksville Normal, graduating from that institution in 1908. A few years ago he conducted a garage in Kirksville. He has had no scientific or mechanical training, but inherits his knack for mechanics from his father. Dr. Sparling had the first telephone that was used in Kirksville, one that he constructed himself. Young Sparling tried to make a box-kite airplane six years ago and failed. He is 37 years old.

TWO DAILY BOAT TRIPS TO ALTON

Fast Steamer Will Be Constructed for Trade.

A new steamboat so swift that it will easily make two trips a day between St. Louis and Alton will be put in commission about April 1. It is to be constructed for the "Vagabond" Co. by Capt. E. J. Howard of Jeffersonville, Ind. Its lines, different from those of any packet now plying on the river, will be a duplicate, on a larger scale, of the old steamer Grey Eagle, which was dismantled in 1932 and which was one of the fastest boats on the Mississippi in the '60s.

The new boat will be probably 185 feet long, 40 feet in beam and of six-foot hold. She will be a side-wheel steamer, operated by a single powerful engine. It is intended that she shall leave this port at 10:30 a. m. for her first trip to Alton and at about 4 p. m. for the second.

The annual Bazaar for the benefit of the "Girls' Industrial Home" will be held at the Home, corner Belt and Von Versen avenues, on Thursday and Friday, Dec. 2 and 3, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Fancy and useful articles, home-made preserves, pickles, mince-meat, candies and cakes will be for sale. Lunch will be served each day from 12 to 2. Every penny spent for the purchase of any of these articles will be a contribution to the home. Come and buy your Christmas presents and assist a worthy cause.

PROJECTED FLATS BASIS OF SUIT

A suit has been filed to enjoin Mrs. Honora McGowan of 2881 Plymouth avenue from erecting an apartment house on property she owns on Von Versen avenue, near Hamilton avenue. The plaintiff is Oscar A. Doerman, an architect, of 2815 Washington boulevard, who owns property near the site of the proposed apartment building.

It is recited in the petition that the building restriction of the neighborhood requires that not more than one dwelling house for one family shall be erected on a lot 50 feet wide. Mrs. McGowan has two lots aggregating 100 feet in width and proposes, according to the petition, to put up a structure large enough to accommodate 21 families. Thomas A. Bidwell, contractor, also is named as defendant in the suit.

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND DON'T KNOW IT

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are probably responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, therefore, when through neglect or other causes, kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results are sure to follow.

Your other organs may need attention—but your kidneys most, because they do most and should have attention first.

If you feel that your kidneys are the cause of your sickness or run down condition, begin taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because as soon as your kidneys begin to get better they will help all the other organs to health.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease.
Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient or physician, who usually content themselves with soothing the effects, while the original disease constantly undermines the system.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable results in the most distressing cases.

Symptoms of Kidney Trouble.
Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything, but if you are obliged to pass your water frequently night and day, smarting or irritating in passing,

If You Need a Medicine You Should Have the Best.
Swamp-Root is always kept up to its high standard of purity and excellence. A sworn certificate of purity with every bottle.

SAMPLE BOTTLE FREE.—To prove the wonderful merits of Swamp-Root you may have a sample bottle and a book of valuable information, both absolutely free by mail. The book contains many of the thousands of letters received from men and women who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy they needed. The value and success of Swamp-Root is so well known that readers are advised to send for a sample bottle. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Poughkeepsie, N. NEW SKYSCRAPER IS LARGEST

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—This town's largest skyscraper will cast its shadow over the Battery.

Towering 31 stories above the ground, it will contain 10 miles of plumbing, 20 miles of steam pipe, 65 miles of conduits and wiring and 3000 electric fixtures. There will be a rentable floor space of 550,000 square feet.

The structure will be an addition to the 20-story Whitehall Building. The completed skyscraper will front 307 3/4 feet on Washington street and 180.8 on Battery place, covering 55,515 square feet, or 21 city lots. It will cost $5,000,000.

Valuable Recipe When Afflicted With Rheumatism or Backache, Also Splendid Tonic.

At the first sign of rheumatic pains or backache, or a feeling of being generally run down and weakened, the following simple prescription should be used:

One ounce compound syrup Sarsaparilla; one ounce Toris compound; half pint high grade whiskey. Mix them and take a tablespoonful before each meal and at bedtime. The bottle must be well shaken each time.

Any druggist will supply these ingredients and they are easily mixed. Not only will this formula promptly relieve the muscular pains, but it makes one of the most effective system builders known to the profession for all persons of failing strength, especially that caused by age. It will eventually restore full physical power.

CORN LEADS ALL FARM PRODUCTS IN 1909 VALUES

Agricultural Bureau's Report Shows America Is Prosperous.

COTTON RANKS SECOND

Total Value of All Crops Exceeds Last Year's by $869,000,000.

By Wire From the Washington Bureau of the Post-Dispatch, WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The American nation attained the high tide of prosperity in 1909, according to the report of Secretary of Agriculture Wilson. The report is for the year ending June 30, given as $3,760,000,000, in increase over 1908, and the value of farm products is the preceding year of $28,900,000,000.

Secretary Wilson inquired into the profit of beef to retail butchers in 50 cities and found that the average was 38 per cent. The St. Louis profit is 29 per cent, or 1 per cent above the general average. Baltimore butchers make least, their profit being only 17 per cent. The highest profit is 64 per cent, in Mobile, Ala. Retailers in Chicago, the greatest packing-center in the country, make 46 per cent profit, Wilson's agents found.

In the upward movement of beef prices the farmer, the report says, has not shared equally with the packer, wholesaler and retailer, but as to hogs the case is different, the farmer receiving nearly his fair share of the higher prices of pork in the increased price of his unfed hogs.

Report on Farm Products.
A synopsis of the report follows:
The most striking fact in the world's agriculture is the value of the corn crop for 1909, which is about $1,720,000,000. It nearly equals the value of the clothing and personal adornments of 7,500,000 people, according to the census of 1900. The gold and silver coin and bullion of the United States are not of greater value. It has grown up from the soil and out of the air in 120 days—$15,000,000 a day for one crop, nearly enough for two Dreadnoughts daily for peace or war. This crop exceeds in value the average of the crops of the five preceding years by 36 per cent.

PICTORIAL STORY THAT SHOWS WHY THE AMERICAN FARMER IS IN HAPPY MOOD

value the average of the crops of the five preceding years by 36 per cent.

Cotton is now the second crop in value, and this year's cotton crop is easily the most valuable one to the farmer that has been produced. With cotton lint selling at 17 cents on the farm Nov. 1 and with cotton seed selling for about 25 per cent, the lint and seed of this crop are worth about $850,000,000 to the farmer. No cotton crop since 1873 has been sold by farmers for as high a price per pound as this one.

Third in value is wheat, worth about $725,000,000 at the farm, and this largely exceeds all previous values. The November farm price was almost an even dollar a bushel, a price which has not been equaled since 1881. This is the third wheat crop in point of size, with 725,000,000 bushels.

The hay crop is valued at $585,000,000; oats at $400,000,000; potatoes at $212,000,000, and tobacco at nearly $100,000,000. Beet and cane sugar and molasses and syrup, from farm and factory, will reach the total of about $85,000,000. The barley crop is worth $88,000,000, flaxseed $36,000,000, and 1,000,000 pounds of rice $25,000,000.

Comparisons With Former Years.
The production of all cereals combined is 4,711,000,000 bushels, an amount considerably greater than that for any other year except 1906. It exceeds the average of the preceding five years by 36 per cent. The value of all cereals in 1909 has never been equaled in a previous year. It is almost exactly $5,000,000,000, or 34 per cent above the five-year average.

Compared with the average of the previous five years, all principal crops are greater in quantity this year except cotton, flaxseed, hops and cane sugar, but without exception every crop is worth more to the farmer than the five-year average.

This is the year of highest production for potatoes, tobacco, beet sugar, all sugar and rice; next to the highest production for corn, oats and all cereals. Compared with 1908, gains in value are found all along the line, the exception being barley, buckwheat, rye and milk. The increase for cotton, lint and seed is $308,000,000, wheat $107,000,000, corn $105,000,000, hay $25,000,000, oats, $22,000,000, tobacco $15,000,000 and potatoes $15,000,000.

ALLEGES DYER GAVE THE JURY SECRET ADVICE

Attorney Declares Additional Instructions Were Given After Twelve Men Had Retired.

Judge Hook of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in an opinion handed down Wednesday refused to consider charges that Judge David P. Dyer of the United States District Court in St. Louis had gone to the juryroom after the jury had retired to consider its verdict, and had there issued secret instructions to the jurors.

The charge was made in pleadings filed by attorneys for the Tomlinson Captive Balloon Co., which sued former Sheriff Edmund C. Hencken of St. Louis County on his bond because of the seizure of "a company's balloon at the World's Fair."

Construed as Untrue.
Judge Hook declared in the opinion that the charge if true was a very grave error, but that as the attorney had not presented it in the proper legal manner, the Court must construe it to be untrue.

A balloon belonging to the company was seized by the Sheriff to satisfy an attachment writ against Carl E. Meyer. The Sheriff contended the balloon belonged to Meyer. The company denied Meyer owned any interest in it. The suit against the Sheriff was for $300.

In the trial before Judge Dyer the jury returned a verdict for the Sheriff. This was reversed by Judge Hook, who ordered the case remanded for a new trial on the ground that Judge Dyer had given instructions which amounted to directing a verdict for the Sheriff. The instruction to which objection was made was:

"There is no evidence before this jury tending to prove that the Deputy Sheriff acted otherwise than was his duty under the attachment writ."

Judge Hook said: "This is an error, because it is equivalent to directing a verdict for the defendant."

In his assignment of errors on appeal, James R. Van Slyke, attorney for the company, alleged that after the jury had retired Judge Dyer gave it additional instructions in the jury room, and that the attorneys had no opportunity to hear what he said to the members. The charge was also made that Judge Dyer refused to permit him to file affidavits of two jurors showing exactly what occurred in the jury room.

Erred in Legal Form.

On this point Judge Hook said: "Complaint is also made of a matter which, if true, would be a grave error. It is said to have occurred while the jurors were in the jury room. It is not in the bill of exceptions, where it should have been placed if counsel desired this Court to consider it. As proper legal advantage was not taken, the Court must construe it as incorrect."

Judge Dyer, when asked about the matter Wednesday by a Post-Dispatch reporter, said: "I never discuss a case which has been tried in my court."

MINISTER'S SON HAS GOOD TIME ON OTHERS' CASH

Runs Away From Home, Where He Sang in the Choir—Now in Jail.

Milton C. Crutchfield of Chicago is in jail here because he grew weary of living up to the standard required of the son of a Methodist minister. He thought his folks were too strict. He wanted to get away from the restraint which they imposed on him. He ran away to Clarksville, Mo. He needed money to have a good time and he obtained it by fraudulent methods. Then he came to St. Louis and is alleged to have passed bogus checks. He is charged with forgery in the fourth degree.

Meanwhile Clarksville mourns the departure of a bright young man, not only because of his unconventional methods of raising money, but because of his singing in the choir of the Methodist Church and because of the solos he was to have sung Friday night at the annual banquet of the Pike County Medical Association.

He Is 21 Years Old.
Crutchfield, who is 21 years old, is the son of Rev. James A. Crutchfield, 699 Sixty-first street, Chicago. The Rev. Mr. Crutchfield is 70 years old and retired.

The youth landed in Clarksville three months ago. A skiff in which he was rowing capsized in the river and he swam ashore. That adventure earned him the sobriquet "Shipwreck."

When Crutchfield left town, as mysteriously as he had come, it was found that he had abused the confidence of several persons.

Got $25 for Insurance.
While helping Jonas Harvey put up a barn he remarked that he could have the structure insured for less than a regular agent would charge. Harvey told him to go ahead. He delivered a policy, properly filled out, and collected $25 from Harvey. It now appears that the young man "sneaked" the policy blank from the office of R. F. McGinnis and that Harvey has only a policy, and no insurance, for his $25.

Timbale of Faust Spaghetti

Add butter and grated cheese to small pieces of well-boiled Spaghetti (one-fourth pound). Work into this two eggs. Butter and bread crumbs a plain mold, and when the Spaghetti is nearly cold fill the mold with it, pressing it down and leaving a hollow in the center into which place a well-flavored mince of meat, poultry or game; then fill the mold with more Spaghetti pressed well down, bake in moderate oven 20 minutes, turn out and serve.

BACKACHE AND KIDNEY MISERY GOES AFTER YOU TAKE JUST A FEW DOSES.

A real surprise awaits every sufferer from kidney or bladder trouble who takes several doses of Pape's Diuretic. Misery in the back, sides or loins, sick headache, nervousness, rheumatism, heart palpitations, dizziness, sleeplessness, inflamed or swollen eyelids, lack of energy and all symptoms of out-of-order kidneys simply vanish. The moment you suspect kidney or urinary disorder, or feel any rheumatism, begin taking this harmless medicine, with the knowledge that there is no other remedy, at any price, made anywhere else in the world, which will effect so thorough and prompt a cure as a fifty-cent treatment of Pape's Diuretic, which any druggist can supply.

It is needless to feel miserable and worried, because this unusual preparation goes at once to the out-of-order kidneys and urinary system, distributing its cleansing, healing and strengthening influence directly upon the organs and glands affected, and completes the cure before you realize it. Your physician, pharmacist, banker or any mercantile agency will tell you that Pape, Thompson & Pape, of Cincinnati, is a large and responsible medicine concern, thoroughly worthy of your confidence. Only curative results can come from taking Pape's Diuretic, and a few days' treatment will make any one feel fine. Accept only Pape's Diuretic—fifty-cent treatment—any drug store—anywhere in the world. * * *

ST. LOUIS friends will be interested in the engagement of Miss Mary Greenwood of New York and Morris Imbrie of New York. Miss Greenwood has returned to the East after a visit of several weeks with her aunt Mrs. Given Campbell and Miss Hazel Joerger. Miss Greenwood is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Greenwood. Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood formerly resided in Cabanne. They have for the past 18 months made their home in New York. Miss Greenwood made the announcement very quietly to the friends during her recent visit. While in the West Miss Greenwood visited her sister Mrs. Herron of Peoria, Ill., who was before her marriage Miss Anna Lou Greenwood. No date has been decided on for the wedding.

Miss Carrie Wiegand of Washington terrace will have as her guest Miss Naomi Bassett of New York. Miss Bassett will arrive about Dec. 18. She has a wide circle of friends in St. Louis, where she formerly resided at the Buckingham with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Bassett.

Mrs. Theodore A. Mysenburg, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. S. F. Block, entertained Tuesday evening with a large reception at her Westmoreland place home. The receiving hours were from 8 to 11 o'clock. Mrs. Mysenburg received in a gown of black thread lace. Mrs. Block wore black satin and rose point lace. Laurel and pine foliage decorated the lower floor. Chrysanthemums were used in profusion. Among the guests were: Messrs. and Mrs. Daniel Catlin, W. C. Stribling, John Holliday, Elmer B. Adams, Judge and Mrs. Shepard Barclay, Rev. and Mrs. Albert H. Jordan, Dr. and Mrs. Campbell Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Greenfield Sluder, Dr. and Mrs. Hayward Post, Dr. and Mrs. Halsey C. DONLIN THINKS JACK THE BEST MAN FOR JOB

Former Star of Giants Talks Baseball With Ardor Though He Is Now an Actor Man.

By JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

MIKE DONLIN will not say he is through playing baseball. Looking just as young and active as he did years ago, and apparently as enthusiastic as ever, he talked liberally on the game. Mike is independent, for he has been immensely successful on the stage, and doesn't need to play baseball for a living.

He and his clever wife, Mabel Elita, are doing a baseball vaudeville sketch at the Columbia this week. They have another week ahead of them, which will wind up the booking, and then both are to go to New York to begin rehearsals for a three-act show which will start about Christmas time. Mike looks much more prosperous than in his baseball days, but one can detect in him that old baseball spirit that holds a man in the game until he is physically helpless.

"I hardly expect to join the New York club again," said Mike, "but, just the same, McGraw has my terms, and I guess he knows now that I intend business when I gave them to him. I don't mind a year ago. I would have played ball for the Giants last summer if they had given me what I asked for. They thought I would have to come to their terms, but I proved to them I didn't have to play ball, and I am still of the same mind."

"I have heard nothing from McGraw since last February, the week after I played here. But I did have a deal all fixed up with Felix Iman to become manager of the Philadelphia club, and McGraw was willing to make the trade. I still think Iman is the man with the money back of the present deal in Philadelphia, and I might go there yet. But I'm not counting on it at all, and will not starve to death if it doesn't come about."

"McGraw had kept Brenahan and myself of the team last year. I think we would have won the pennant for New York. But I guess the fans of St. Louis are glad he let Roger come here. He's a great baseball man."

Browns Have New Trainer; Hedges and O'Connor to Plan Trades

OWNER HEDGES of the Browns has signed a new trainer for the coming season. He is Martin T. Lawler, who has been handling the bruises and cuts of the Philadelphia Athletics for some years past. Connie Mack speaks highly of the man, who is a graduate of a medical school and understands the training of athletes thoroughly. Mack was forced to turn him loose because another physician close to the club's owner was placed on the job.

The trainer for professional baseball teams has become a necessity in late years, though in the days when Charley Coniney was winning pennants, he was unknown. Now the ballplayer must have expert attention for all his ills and pains.

It's a good thing for a team, too, because such a man knows how to dress cuts and bruises so that no serious results will follow. Lawler will join the team early in the spring and be taken on the training trip.

Hedges spent Monday in Chicago on business outside of baseball, but of course took time to call on Ben Johnson, president of the American League. The local magnate is of the opinion that there will be no trouble between Johnson and Charles Murphy, owner of the Chicago Cubs, though these two men have been stirring things up to the point of a baseball war during the past week. Johnson has always been opposed to Murphy and snaps at him at every opportunity. However, the American League is threatening to break away from the National Commission should Murphy succeed in placing John M. Ward as president of the National body in place of John Heydler. The whole affair has turned out to be little more than a personal wrangle between Johnson and Murphy and the other magnates of the National and American leagues, the men who will do the voting have had but little to say.

Hedges is planning to leave for New York a week from next Sunday and will take Manager O'Connor along with him. In the meantime he expects to hold daily conferences with his new leader and lay out plans for attack when they will meet with the other club owners and try to make trades.

O'Connor knows now what men he wants to trade and whom he wants for them, but does not expect to be successful in all attempts.

Alley Strikes and Spares

Although none of the high marks of the City Tennis Association tournament on the De Soto-Pine Alleys suffered Tuesday, some excellent scores were registered. "Doc" Parrish, a newspaper man, happened to drop in at the alleys during the afternoon. Parrish was entered for the doubles and bowled with Taggart. Parrish started off with a 240 game. Taggart got 232 pins in his second. Between them they managed to get a total of 100, which, with a handicap of 24 pins, gave them a total of 124, which is the third high two-men mark of the tournament.

Most of the bowling Tuesday was done by two-men teams, although quite a number of men bowled their individual competition games. Wilder, with a total of 200, including a 54-pin handicap, was high.

There is new talk of a special match between the Regals and Duffys. If they do not meet in a special contest, quite an amount of money should change hands on the result of their first meeting in the City Star League. The Regals are the present city champions. In the City Star League the Regals won from the Duffys the first time they met. Later the Duffys annexed the old game in their match with the Regals.

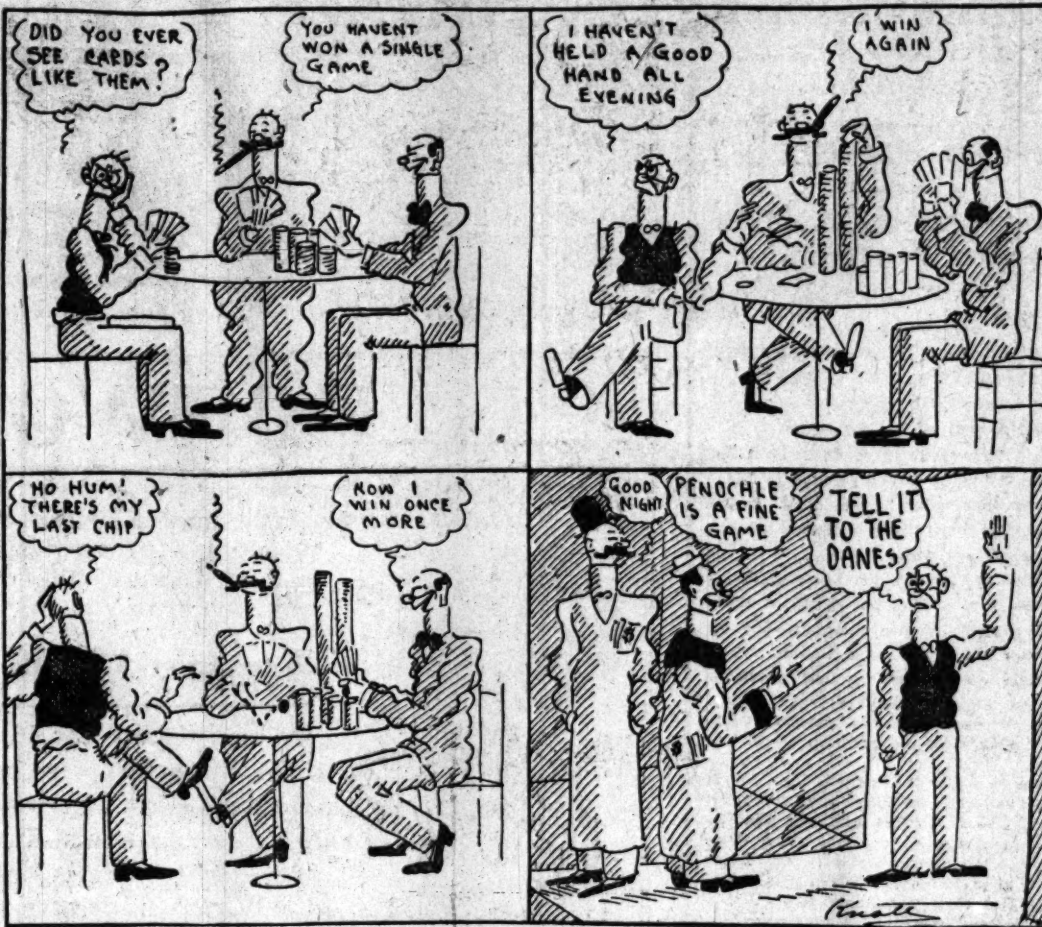

Wilder was also in good form when he shot his doubles with Williams as his partner. He got a total of 610 pins. Williams sent over 523 pins. The men received a 100-pin handicap, which gave them a total of 124. Wilder is the only St. Louis man who was able to win a match from Jimmy Smith, the New York bowler, who was recently in St. Louis.

The present city tournament will end Friday night. Efforts are being made

Koenig's Boat Is Wanted in Race

Promoters of Events at Tampa Ask St. Louis Man to Enter Independence II.

Ed Koenig's Independence II, the fastest speed boat in the local harbor, is wanted by the promoters of the Tampa (Fla.) race meeting to be held after the holidays. Koenig has received a letter asking him to enter his boat if possible and it is probable that he will do so. He is sure to send his boat south if the Dixie II, international speed-boat champion, is entered.

Koenig is at present having his boat overhauled, as the craft would have to be in the best possible trim to compete against the fastest boats of the country, which will be entered for the Southern races. It is also possible that if the prize money is large enough that the Mississippi Valley, the national 20-foot champion, also a St. Louis boat, will be sent South.

Koenig is planning to leave for New York a week from next Sunday and will take Manager O'Connor along with him. In the meantime he expects to hold daily conferences with his new leader and lay out plans for attack when they will meet with the other club owners and try to make trades.

O'Connor knows now what men he wants to trade and whom he wants for them, but does not expect to be successful in all attempts.

Georgetown Substitutes Soccer for Rugby Game

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Georgetown University's student body, accepting the interdiction of the faculty on varsity football as final, has started to make soccer football the major college sport of the autumn season. The cessation of football at Georgetown, occasioned by the death of Archer Christian, halfback of the Virginia team, from injuries received in a game with Georgetown, took place the day following the fatal game.

It was not intended then to make the cessation of football permanent, but shortly thereafter the Georgetown faculty took a hand and the game has been banished for all time.

Robert B. Williams, an old player of the Caledonians, has been engaged to coach the soccer team at Georgetown. Interclass teams will be formed as soon as the men master the rudiments.

Abolition of football in the State of Virginia is regarded as likely. In that event soccer no doubt will replace the varsity team at Washington and Lee.

While he was here O'Hara had a conference with Roger Brenahan, but neither would talk as to the outcome of it. It is believed it related to O'Hara's desire that St. Louis waive claim on him.

Robison Holds Deciding Vote for President

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Stanley Robison, president of the St. Louis Cardinals, today further complicated the situation over the election of the president of the National League, to succeed John Heydler, by announcing that he was not pledged to vote for Heydler or John M. Ward, the candidate of the Murphy forces, or any other man. Furthermore, Robison will not take sides in the matter until the League will meet in this city on Dec. 15.

Both sides have claimed that Robison would vote with them. The following dispatch from Toledo, printed here today, was received last night:

"I do not see what right they have to say I am for Heydler or against him; that I am for Ward or against him; that I have given my promise to vote with Murphy or declared myself with Dreyfuss or Herrmann. The fact is, I have not conferred with any of my colleagues since all this agitation began. I have not committed myself in any way, and will not until I reach New York for the National League meeting. I shall wait until I have become entirely conversant with the conditions that exist."

President Dovey of the Boston National League club today gave out a positive statement to the effect that he would vote for John Heydler to succeed himself as president of the League.

BASKET BALL NOTES.

The C. B. C. basketball team will line up against the McKendree College five of Lebanon, Ill., Saturday night, in what should prove to be a very fast game. The collegians are out to even up matters, as McKendree has a victory to its credit over the locals.

There will be a double-header at the Louisiana Hall Wednesday night, in which the Louisiana Hall team will meet the Universal A. C. in the feature contest, while the Mohawk A. C. and the Grace five will play the opening game.

Followers of the sport are awaiting the arrival of E. B. Coehms in the basketball field. It is said that he will have a team to represent Barnes before long.

O'HARA SEES ROGER; DOES NOT WANT TO PLAY HERE

TOLEDO, O., Dec. 1.—Bill O'Hara, outfielder of the New York Giants whom Manager John McGraw sought to release to the Baltimore team of the Eastern League, but on whom the St. Louis Nationals refused to waive, is in the city on a visit. The outfielder is not much enamored of the possibility of playing for Roger Brenahan. Not that he has anything against Brenahan, but he would prefer to return to the Eastern League. The reason for this is that O'Hara has just gone into an extensive business venture in Toronto, Ontario, which is his home, and by playing in the Eastern circuit he would have an opportunity to get back to Toronto frequently, that city being in the Eastern League. In any event he would prefer not to play in St. Louis if he has to stay in the National League, arguing that the climate would not permit him to give the team his best efforts.

While he was here O'Hara had a conference with Roger Brenahan, but neither would talk as to the outcome of it. It is believed it related to O'Hara's desire that St. Louis waive claim on him.

KLING OR LAKE WILL MANAGE THE PHILLIES

Horace Fogel Announces That Billy Murray Will Not Have Charge of Team.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1.—Final decision that William Murray would not manage the Phillies next season and the announcement that the plan at Broad and Huntingdon streets would be enlarged to accommodate 30,000 persons were the two most important developments of the fifth day of President Horace Fogel's administration.

Murray's successor will be John Kling or Fred Lake. The new owner of the Phillies let out Murray, not on the ground of incompetence, for they have a very high regard for his ability, but because it wants to start next season's campaign with a clean slate. It is Fogel's policy to rise or fall by his own judgment and not to shoulder any blame, in case of non-success, on the old ownership of the team. That is the reason he wants to begin his first year's campaign with a manager of his own selection. Kling will be the man providing the National Commission lifts the three-year suspension against him. It is presumed that the new owners will compromise with Murray and satisfy him on all points before his leaving. A man closer to the old owners of the club declared that the fact that Manager Murray sent Outfielder Clement to Jersey City last year without the sanction of the board of directors offers the wedge whereby his contract may be shattered.

Trolley Leagues Expect A BIG YEAR IN 1931

It is probable that next season one of the strongest trolley leagues ever organized in the vicinity of St. Louis will be in the field. Plans are now being made to organize a trolley league of professional baseball players are also counting on making considerable money next summer than ever before. The managers of the teams are also looking out for men for next year, and some players have already signed contracts.

There are three parks in St. Louis where the Trolley League teams played during the past season, Kulaga's, South End and Athletic parks. The games at Kulaga's Park and at South End Park drew big crowds every Sunday, but each park was the home of a pennant winner, while at Athletic Park the Millers were unable to do as well. It would not be a surprise to see the two leagues combine for next season, and arrange the strongest possible circuit, with Gillespie, Mount Olive, Stanton and Belleville, besides the local teams.

"UNCLE JOE" SIGNS A MANAGER FOR HIS NEW BASEBALL CLUB

WHEELING, W. Va., Dec. 1.—Uncle Joe Cannon, Speaker of the House of Representatives and owner of the Danville club of the Illinois-Indiana-Iowa League, made his inaugural movement in baseball today when he signed Jack McCarthy, the old-time Pittsburgh, Chicago and Brooklyn player, to manage the club next season.

McCarthy won a pennant at Springfield in the same league, and last season as a member of the Wausau club, in the Minnesota-Wisconsin League, batted 30 per cent.

The Danville fans are trying to find out whether McCarthy is a Republican or Democrat.

Followers of the sport are awaiting the arrival of E. B. Coehms in the basketball field. It is said that he will have a team to represent Barnes before long.

While he was here O'Hara had a conference with Roger Brenahan, but neither would talk as to the outcome of it. It is believed it related to O'Hara's desire that St. Louis waive claim on him.

Bronson and Desher Drav. BOSTON, Dec. 1.—Ray Bronson of Indianapolis and Dave Desher of Cambridge boxed 13 rounds to a draw before the Armory Athletic Club Tuesday night.

Charley Peterson was in excellent form Tuesday night in his 13.3 ball-line billiard match with Roney at Peterson's hall. "Pete" averaged 17.17, which was good enough to win for him 20 to 25. Peterson's high run was 17.17. In the afternoon game Peterson, defeated Shalek, 200 to 25. Peterson will play Walker at 4 o'clock Wednesday and live at 8 o'clock.

Shay and Bowers will meet in the three-cushion billiard tournament game at Puch's Wednesday evening. Wilson won from Dirchel Tuesday night, 2 to 21.

The Iroquois rugby team wants a game for Sunday with some team averaging about 120 pounds. Address: G. Metasche, 545 Oregon avenue.

J. W. Scott, former State champion, and Johnny "Red" Layton will meet in their State pool tournament match at the Navarro Wednesday evening. The game is expected to result in some of the best pool playing witnessed during the tournament. Tuesday evening Anderson won from Ellison, 100 to 25.

John Wurstel would like to meet any of the following wrestlers in a match for a side wager: Hebenheimer, Nagel or Krueger. Wurstel has lately beaten Engelbrecht, Frank Ream and two men in Chicago. Wurstel can be found at the South Broadway A. C.

Harry Trendall and George Menais, who met in a 10-round boxing bout at Suburban Garden on Sept. 23, Tuesday, pleaded guilty at Clayton to a charge of participating in a prize fight. Each of the men was fined $100. The cases of the promoters of the bout are set for Thursday.

UNTIRING HEAD OF THE ST. LOUIS COLLEGE CLUB

MISS ADELE SCHMITZ
REMBRANDT PHOTO

COLLEGE CLUB'S THEATER PARTY WILL BE ON DEC. 14

Organization Hopes to Get Enough Funds to Educate Six Girls Next Year.

Much of the success of the big theater party of the St. Louis College Club last season was due to the untiring efforts of Miss Adele Schmitz, who is the president of the club this year. The members all hope for a duplication of the profits of last year from the theater party they will give at the Olympic on Dec. 14, with Miss Blille Burke, in "Love Watches," as the attraction. The club has been able to maintain five young women in college as the result of the previous success and hopes to make the number six next year.

The coming party will be a social event of first importance. The theater will be decorated in college colors, the orchestra will play college airs and the audience, armed with pennants, will sing them, with Edward F. Goltra as the leader. The advance sale of seats will open Thursday morning at Bollman's.

HAS TWO WIVES OR NONE; JUDGE HOLDS SECRET

Percy Shatto, Twice-Married, Cooks His Own Meals and Lives Alone.

HURRIED HIS WEDDING

Court Makes Him Leave Bride He Took Two Days After Being Divorced.

While living apart by agreement, Percy Shatto and his bride of less than a month are awaiting the decision of Judge Hadley of the Edwardsville Circuit Court as to whether he will set aside a divorce decree granted to Shatto two days before he remarried. In the meantime Shatto is in a dilemma whether he has one wife or two.

There are two women who call themselves Mrs. Shatto, but which of them has a right to the name depends on further action by Judge Hadley. The trouble was caused by that provision in the Illinois law which says that a divorced person must not marry within a year after the granting of the decree.

Shatto obtained a divorce from Leona Mueller Shatto in Judge Hadley's court Nov. 11. The Judge told him that he must not marry within a year. Two days later Shatto came to St. Louis with Miss Henrietta. Women of Granite City and they were married.

Judge Interrupts Honeymoon. With his new wife Shatto returned to Granite City and all was merry until Judge Hadley found out about the second wedding.

He acted promptly, but in a rather unexpected way. Shatto, summoned before the judge, was surprised to find that his divorced wife had been sent for also.

They did not speak to each other. The Judge did all the talking. Pleading upon the divorced husband and wife, he asked them if they could show cause why the divorce decree should not be set aside.

Shatto couldn't think of any better excuse to offer than that he had taken a second wife and that if he had to go back to the first one there would be serious domestic complications in his new household.

Ordered to Leave His Bride. "That is no excuse," said the Judge. "In marrying again, you violated my instructions and the terms of the decree. It was no marriage, even though it was solemnized in another state. The court at Harrisburg recently handed down a decision which would justify me in annulling the divorce decree."

Shatto and his first wife pleaded that the decree be allowed to stand. This presented another difficulty.

"Pending a decree on the decision you should not live with the woman you married in Missouri," the judge said to Shatto. "If you will agree not to live with her for 12 months, I will take the matter of your former divorce decree under advisement. If at the end of that time the decree has not been revoked I will decide whether it will be necessary for you to have a second marriage performed before you live together again."

Shatto and his wife, Henrietta Hearn, agreed to the separation in accordance with the request of the judge. The bride who thought she was a wife has gone to live with her sister, Mrs. M. F. Harness, 2120 D street, Granite City. Shatto continues to live half a block away at the home which he fitted up for his new bride. The first Mrs. Shatto also is in Granite City.

PASSENGERS PAY FOR BURIAL OF HERO WHO DIED TO SAVE THEM

Contribute Purse to Widow of Section Hand Who Prevented Train Wreck.

MEXICO, Mo., Dec. 1.—Curtis Gentry, killed by the train he saved from destruction, will be buried with money contributed by passengers of the fast Wabash train which hit Gentry. A purse also was given to the widow of the section hand.

The track west of Mexico was undergoing repairs, and a section of it was suspended by jacks. The train, three hours late and running at amiable speed, dashed out of the fog. With the track suspended, it seemed impossible to prevent a holocaust, and but for Gentry's heroic loss of life was inevitable.

Although realizing he was going to almost certain death, Gentry ran to the jack that was holding the most dangerous section of track in midair. With but a few seconds to work, he wrestled desperately with the mechanism. His companions fled when the train's rumble was heard through the fog.

With the train but a few feet away, the last cog of the jack slipped off the catwalk, and the track dropped. Gentry was struck as he was half turned to escape from the tracks.

THAT PALLID, ASHEN HUE

The forewarning of diseased kidneys' deadly work is in the gray pallor of your face—don't allow the kidneys to become deranged.

Day by day, there are people—men and women—gradually drifting along—taking little heed of the first signs of diseased kidneys and bladder—until the time for a cure is past. There is then little to hope for. Few persons even faintly comprehend the excessively deadly character of Kidney and Bladder ailments. If they did they would in no case delay seeking a cure.

Such insistent signals of danger as those intermittent pains and "hitches" in the back, groin and limbs (or constant dragging pains in back), headaches, bloating of the extremities, nervousness, tired-out feeling, sleeplessness at night, etc.—should convince you that your system is charged with that deadliest of all systemic poisons—uric acid.

And uric acid in your system surely means Kidney and Bladder disease—and, later, chronic rheumatism, inflammatory rheumatism, gravel and gallstones, dropsy, diabetes, serious nervous disorders, and Bright's Disease. You will readily see why you cannot afford to delay.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills.

are the best remedy in the world for all such conditions. This statement is made with a full knowledge of the great and permanent benefits which have quickly resulted from their use, in multitudes of even the most desperate cases. We know just what they will do. DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills give almost immediate beneficial results, in any Kidney and Bladder derangement, and are marvelously soothing, healing, antiseptic and reconstructive in their action upon the weakened, diseased and inflamed organs and tissues. You can hardly fail to experience permanent benefit and cure.

E. C. De Witt & Co., the manufacturers of these Pills, want every man or woman who has the slightest suspicion that he or she is a victim of Kidney or Bladder derangement, in any form, to at once know just how beneficial these Pills are.

To accomplish this, as quickly as possible, they will (even though these Pills are for sale at nearly all drug stores) send by return mail to anyone who will merely take the trouble to write for it—a free trial of De Witt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. Surely no one can afford to neglect accepting so generous an offer. Send for it today.

Thousands of grateful men and women have accepted this offer, secured the free trial of treatment of De Witt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, and now state that they are free from every trace of the dreaded disease that was sapping their lives away.

STATE STILL GOES WITHOUT A NICKNAME

body Can Seem to Think a Catchy Handle for Old Missouri.

SUGGESTIONS ARE MADE

Werremeyer Thinks It Should Be Called the State of Matrimony.

Missouri has not been nicknamed yet. Journeymen nicknames are working eight hours a day on it, but the output is very limited and of very indifferent quality. With them the spirit is willing, but the mind is weak, or not strong enough, anyway, to grapple with the mental task of nicknaming a great State like Missouri.

Dozens of men of undoubted patriotism and powerful brain potentiality, asked by Post-Dispatch reporters to nickname Missouri, have begged to be excused from undertaking so great a task. They are candidly averse to trying to do, inside of a couple of minutes, what it ordinarily takes all the people of the State, assisted by the people of the rest of the United States, about a hundred years to do.

Samples of the Name.
A few nicknames, more expert than the rest, have thought out nicknames which they think would have a tendency, if adopted, to make the great State greater still, and these are given below:

W. K. Kavanaugh, president of the Deep Waterways Association: Missouri is the River State. Give me a half hour to think. (Half hour later.) I've got it. Missouri is the Square Deal State. Everybody gets a square deal here, and if he says he doesn't get it he has to show us.

Hiram Lloyd, I have been trying to solve the problem by thinking over the State's natural resources. We have almost all the natural products but I suppose some one peculiar to the State would be most fitting in a nickname. The Jack of the Joplin district is peculiar to Missouri. Suppose we should say the Jack State? Would everybody think we were talking about the Missouri mule?

Poetic Justice Werremeyer of Clayton kept a pair of impatient nuptial novitates waiting long enough to pronounce, in answer to a request for a suggestion:

"In our State none need be lonely,
'Tis the State of Matrimony."
Charles F. Wenckers: Call it the "Middle West."

Charles F. Ziebold: A good nickname for Missouri would be "The Granary of the World." Everything is raised, drink, wear and be prosperous is raised right here in Missouri.

A. B. Lambert: I am in favor of calling it the "Unit State." Unit means a body or group considered as a whole. In other words, a combination of everything in one state, manufactures, agriculture, minerals, everything of that sort. It is the center of the country, too.

Saunders Norvell: It might be called the "Center State." It is right in the middle of the country.

F. F. Crandall: I wouldn't call Missouri a name for anything.
Judge B. L. Goode of the Court of Appeals: The "Black Jack" State seems appropriate to me, as I know of no other State which has the characteristic black jack timber of Missouri. I might also suggest the name of the "Mount-ain-prairie" State. We have mountains, forests and prairie in Missouri, and I know of no other State that has this varied combination in quantities.

FEDERAL CROWD VICTORY SEEN IN CHOICE OF FLORY

Opposing Elements Disappointed at Losing Clerkship of Court of Appeals.

The appointment of Joseph Flory, former Republican gubernatorial candidate, as Clerk of the Court of Appeals is a victory for the Federal organization in Missouri, headed by Senator Warner and Postmaster T. J. Akins. It did not become known until a few days ago that Mr. Flory was a candidate for the place, and it was ascertained that the Federal influence was behind him, friends of Alexander M. Lewis, who seemed to have the best chance for getting the appointment, began to lose hope.

Lewis had the indorsement of a majority of members of the St. Louis bar, and most of the bankers of the city. Nick Polito was recommended for the place by the Republican City Committee. Capt. E. H. Loffhagen, another candidate, had the backing of the Republican State Committee. Loffhagen is a member of the State Committee and Polito of the City Committee. Because of the nonpolitical influence behind Lewis it was believed he had the advantage over the other candidates, known to be in the field. Judge Reynolds, however, was known to be very friendly with both Lewis and Loffhagen, who stopped aside a few years ago and allowed Judge Reynolds to receive the Republican nomination for Congress in the Twelfth district. Neither Judge Reynolds nor Judge Norton, the other Republican member of the Court of Appeals bench, took kindly to Polito's candidacy. It is said, but the instance of the City Committee kept him in the fight. Judge Goode, the Democratic member, took no part in the contest.

A week ago the Federal element was injected into the fight in the person of Flory. He was so strongly indorsed that Judge Norton decided on him as the "dark horse," to end the deadlock. It is believed that Judge Reynolds dictated the appointment of Capt. William Todd Hunter, a Union soldier of Potosi, Mo., for Marshal of the Court of Appeals in return for his support of Attorney T. E. Francis, a brother-in-law of Judge Norton, for reporter of the court.

Lewis and Loffhagen are both connected with the Circuit Clerk's office, the former as chief deputy and the latter as clerk of Judge Fisher's court. Lewis is a brother of John A. Lewis, cashier of the Bank of Commerce. He has been in the Circuit Clerk's office since 1895.

Chicago Cherry Fund $50,000.
CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—At a benefit performance given yesterday by the Associated Theater Managers $6745 was raised for the unfortunate families of the Cherry mine victims. This swells the Cherry relief fund to date to about $50,000.

A commission of physicians has visited Miss Tuttle several times, and the members are unanimous in the opinion that the young woman's mind is unbalanced.

Girl Arrested at Mexico, Mo., for Criminal Libel to Go to an Asylum.

MEXICO, Mo., Dec. 1.—Arrangements have been made to send Miss Dixie Tuttle, daughter of a farmer, to the Asylum for the Insane at Fulton, Mo., and she will be placed in that institution Thursday. Miss Tuttle was arrested Thanksgiving morning, charged with criminal libel. She was released on bond, and her trial was to have been held Friday.

A commission of physicians has visited Miss Tuttle several times, and the members are unanimous in the opinion that the young woman's mind is unbalanced.

KILLS PLAYMATE HE WOUNDED, TO HIDE ACCIDENT

Boy Pursues Chum and Fires
Two More Bullets Into His Body.

CONFESSES MURDER

Tells Police He Thought He
"Might as Well Do a Good Job."

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 1.—Frightened at the sight of blood flowing from a wound in the head of Harry Long, 15 years old, his playmate, caused by the accidental discharge of a revolver, Wesley McBride decided that the best thing he could do was to finish the work, and while Long lay on the ground, McBride fired two more bullets into his head, killing him instantly. Leaving the dead boy in the road, the young slayer went quietly home, where he was arrested some hours later while playing around the house. McBride confessed to the police. He is 15 years old.

McBride was a constant reader of dime novels. Three weeks ago he quit his position at the Burlington shops because the work interfered with his reading.

Slayer Is Politician's Son.
His father is George McBride, county surveyor and well-known politician. Long's father is a laborer.

On the afternoon of the killing, McBride, Long and Harry Jounschiet left their homes and started for the Missouri River "to have some fun," as Jounschiet expressed it. McBride carried a revolver.

"As we walked along," said Jounschiet, "I was a little bit behind the others. Wesley dropped back behind Long, pulled the pistol out of his pocket and said:

"Don't you think I had better put him?" making a motion as if to shoot Long in the back.

"I thought he was joking and said 'No' to him."

"I put the revolver away, but in a few minutes he dropped back again and pulling the revolver, said:

"Do you think it would be all right for me to put him now?" and again I told him not to.

The third time he did that I got scared and left the boys down near the river."

Before reaching home, Jounschiet met several boys whom he knew and told them of McBride's strange actions, saying:

"I bet he does kill him this afternoon."

Plays After Tragedy.
Half an hour later two boys saw McBride running from the river and a little later they found the dead body of Long. The police were notified and immediately began a search for McBride, whom they found at play at home.

"Yes, I killed him," said McBride. "The first shot was accidental, and then I thought I might as well do a good job. I put two more bullets through his head. I didn't mean to shoot him. I was playing with the pistol, twirling it on my finger, when it accidentally went off. The ball hit Harry in the mouth and the blood flowed."

"I got scared and Harry screamed and started to run. Then I fired at him again, but did not hit him. I ran after Harry and as he was dazed he could not run as fast as I could. I headed him off and was about to fire again when he dodged me and went in another direction. But I soon caught up with him again and put a bullet into his ear. He fell to the ground and was twisting and moaning when I leaned over and fired another bullet into his head. Then he lay still and I knew he was dead."

"I didn't think any body would ever know who had killed him, so I ran home."

Under the Nebraska juvenile court laws, McBride, who is only 15 years old, ordinarily would be turned over to the Juvenile Court for trial, in which case the extreme penalty is imprisonment in the detention home until he is 21 years old, but County Attorney English has announced that he will prosecute McBride under the criminal laws.

Navy Department Fears for Men on Marietta.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Anxiety has succeeded passing interests in the minds of officials of the Navy Department as another day has gone without the five men of the deck crew of the gunboat Marietta, off Port Limon, Costa Rica, being found.

It is now more than one hundred hours since the little whaleboat of the Marietta was swept out to sea with the five enlisted men in it. There is every reason to believe that food to last at least 120 hours and a beaker of water was in the boat. What is most feared is the swamping of the little craft.

Prescription. 50 Years in Use.

As a guarantee that the story of Father John's Medicine is absolutely true, the sum of $25,000 will be given to any charitable institution if it can be shown otherwise.

Half a century ago, when the late Father John O'Brien of Lowell, Mass., recommended to his parishioners and friends the prescription that had restored him to health and strength, the people named it Father John's Medicine.

Its power to cure colds and throat and lung troubles is due to the fact that it gives vital strength to fight the disease. Remember that Father John's Medicine is a pure and wholesome food medicine for those who are weak and run down. It does not contain alcohol or dangerous drugs. Not a patent medicine but a doctor's prescription. Guaranteed.

THE FRISCO IS COMING HOME.

The Frisco Railroad is coming home on Dec. 5. That is the date when its decree of divorce from the Rock Island becomes effective. St. Louis never did approve that alliance. But youth is hot-headed and never will listen to sage advice. The Frisco has had many adventures since it made its meandering with this Chicago swashbuckler back in 1903. It has journeyed into strange countries, hobnobbed with magnates and potentates, been banqueted and battered; it has quarreled and stamped in the market place and once it fancied it was lord of a Northwest dominion that centered in Chicago.

St. Louis people have looked at its career sometimes with pride, sometimes with hope, but always with misgivings as this child of its bosom rambled into strange paths. They knew its first success was won in St. Louis. They knew its chances of victory were premised on the commercial soundness of this city. They knew it was a reckless perversion of the original plan that this St. Louis child should be tied to an affair that dwelt in Chicago and was nursed in New Jersey. They grieved when it suffered and rejoiced when it succeeded, but they always felt it had got away from the teachings of its early career and they were fearful it would run into Harriman or the Interstate Commerce Commission and get merged again or trounced.

It doesn't do for railroads to wander too far from the native heath. Distant managers are indifferent to local conditions. Headquarters can't be reached easily and shippers are very human and resent dealing with an impersonal octopus, however kindly its declarations. Absentee landlordism is always repugnant.

St. Louis is the natural abiding place of the Frisco, now as 13 years ago. It has grown to be big enough of itself. It needs neither to swallow other roads to win respect nor to be swallowed that it may aid in winning respect for others. It will become again, let us hope, a part of a St. Louis system and of which St. Louis will be proud—not sentimentally only, but commercially. We look to see it and its allied lines making St. Louis the center of its interests and work.

The decision sustaining the merchants who protested against the arbitrary increase of the valuations on which their license tax is computed will meet with general satisfaction. The Post-Dispatch objected to the action of the City License Board at the time and there was no general approval of a plan which sought to penalize business as a means of making easier the political progress of a party. It is expected that merchants will pay the usual taxes assessed for the maintenance of the city government. But it is not good policy to tax commerce and least of all is it good policy to make an arbitrary increase in rates when the obvious purpose is to enable an administration to avoid the supposed opprobrium of a high tax rate.

PROHIBITION IN ALABAMA.

A lesson which extremists of all kinds will do well to ponder over and profit by has just been taught in Alabama by the popular vote upon the proposed prohibition amendment to the Constitution. After a prolonged campaign carried on everywhere with intense ardor, and waged sometimes with personal bitterness, the advocates of the amendment have been overwhelmingly defeated. While the vote has not yet been officially declared, it is known that out of the 67 counties of the State, only about ten were carried for the proposed measure.

The significance of the vote lies in the fact that there is by no means a dominating saloon element in the State. On the contrary, the moderates are in the majority in virtually every community. The people have declared themselves in favor of statutory prohibition and under such regulation strong temperance sentiment has ruled the State. The present defeat is due to the fact that extreme prohibitionists not content with local victories nor even with legislative enactments, have demanded more than the people are willing to grant. Aspiring politicians eager to profit by what seemed to them an overwhelming popular sentiment joined with the extremists and gave their aid to radical measures. They enacted for Alabama the most drastic prohibition laws on record, and going further still, undertook to fix these laws in the very Constitution itself.

What happened in the election of Monday was the inevitable reaction against such extreme measures. While the prohibition extremists and the politicians went wild, the people as a whole remained sane. They have tried prohibition by local option and by State legislation. They have had experience with both. They have weighed well the effects and the influences of both. Out of that experience and that reflection they have decided to keep regulation in their own hands. Such is clearly the meaning of the vote on Monday.

AN INSPIRING VIEW.

"An affirmative report from a negative commission," was Engineer Lyman E. Cooley's apt characterization of the report of the Government commission of engineers who examined the feasibility of the 14-foot waterway from the lakes to the gulf. The commission, while opposed to the construction of the canal or the ground that the commerce of the river did not justify it, admitted its practicability as an engineering feat.

Mr. Cooley outlined in a novel and striking way at the Business Men's League luncheon the tremendous value of a dependable and sufficient waterway through the valley as a method of conservation and a means of transportation. He compared the Mississippi Valley with all of Europe, which it overtops in area and in resources for the support of population. But on the basis of the waterway systems of France and Germany, with one mile of waterway to every 25 miles of area and every three miles of railroad, we should have 80,000 miles of waterway. He pointed out the need of the waterways to develop the resources and promote the prosperity of the valley. He showed that railroad transportation is not and cannot be adequate for the possibilities of this territory and that its cost hampers the productive activities of the people.

The objective of Mr. Cooley's plan is a 24-foot channel from the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the Gulf of Mexico, thus bringing the sea to the interior of the valley. This would cost $250,000,000 less than would be required to build one railroad to the seaboard. But the canal would handle many times the amount of freight a railroad could bear, at a much cheaper rate.

Mr. Cooley gave an interesting description of the waterway plans of Chicago and Illinois. They expect to expend not less than $100,000,000 on their part of the great valley waterway, and look for returns in water power and land salvage, which will far exceed the expenditure. He showed how increasing conservation will simplify deepening the channel and how by conserving the energy of the river the improvements can be made to pay for themselves.

The program outlined by Mr. Cooley embodies the highest wisdom. His broad view of the possibilities of the great fertile area between the mountain ranges and from the gulf to the lakes and to the sea on the northeast under the stimulus of combined rail and highly developed waterway transportation is inspiring. It is the view to which the nation and the states must come if we are to realize our opportunities. The people of the valley should undertake the task of converting Congress to the largest program and of convincing it that the work should be commenced at once.

The Alabama election seems to mark the turn of the tide. At any rate, politicians will stop looking and listen before they tie up to the prohibition movement.

A DEMOCRATIC OPPORTUNITY.

A report from Washington forecasting the probable action of Congress says an effort will be made to postpone action upon any and all bills for the establishment of postal savings banks until the general banking and monetary systems of the country have been reformed. Such a policy can have no other object than that of evading the Republican pledge in the Chicago platform to provide a postal savings bank. It is to be understood that those ingenious measures by which the "standpaters" seek to defeat the will of the country during this Congress, by delusive promises of large performances at some later, distant and indefinite date.

It is very well understood that the Monetary Commission will not make its report until late in the present session, and of course that virtually precludes even an attempt at monetary legislation during this Congress. As a matter of fact, no definite plan of monetary reform has thus far been put forward for consideration and discussion. Evidently then if the pledge to establish postal savings banks is not to be fulfilled until after the whole monetary problem has been settled, the country may as well abandon expectation on the subject.

The issue affords the Democrats of Congress another opportunity to do effective work in the interests of the people. They should see to it that this pledge of the Republican party is kept prominently before Congress and before the country. If they cannot force a postal savings bank bill upon the consideration of the House or the Senate, they can at least compel the Republicans to openly reject all such consideration. They can prevent an evasion of the issue by mere silence and trickery.

Senator Aldrich says he saw neither poverty nor distress on his Western trip. He doesn't see it at home, either.

LYNCHING AND LAW.

The inevitable influence of the lynching at Cairo has had an effect. At Livingston, Ill., a mob of 200 men and women attacked the jail for the purpose of lynching three men confined there under a charge of murder. The attack did not succeed, for while the mob was breaking down the front door, a deputy sheriff took the prisoners out by a back door and succeeded in getting them safely away to jail at Edwardsville, 18 miles off. Upon this report there will be general congratulation among the law-abiding people of Illinois that the rage of the mob was baffled, that the lynching was averted and that the accused men will have their day in court with a fair legal trial. The earnestness of the congratulation, however, will be somewhat abated by the consciousness that the law in this case has won its way not by suppressing the mob, but by running away from it. It has been an evasion of lynch law rather than a vindication of State law.

It is to be noted that the dispatch giving the account of the affair states that most of the mob were "foreigners." If that be true, it merely shows how quickly aliens learn from native Americans to treat the law with disrespect, and to give themselves to the lawlessness of open violence. Lynch law is not a foreign importation.

Some day we shall have to meet lynching mobs by measures more drastic and more awe-compelling than those of evasion. We cannot go on forever congratulating ourselves and commending our officials when they evade mobs by flying from them. We shall have to save such congratulations and commendations for use when a lynching is averted by compelling the mob to fly from the law.

Mrs. Gertrude Atherton says she "would rather go to hell than live in Chicago" and of course the Chicago people will be polite enough to reply to the lady that they are perfectly willing to have her go.

Pending decision on appeal, Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison will remain out on bail, thus permitting the advertisement to run until further notice.

Mr. Taft won't recommend further anti-trust legislation. Mr. Taft is a lawyer and the trusts are the lawyers' very best customers.

England's newest Dreadnaught has a speed of 22.4 knots an hour. That will enable a few scared Englishmen to escape.

How did the wets celebrate their victory in Alabama?

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

The Mexican Question.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
In answer to the article of J. W. D. that appeared in your paper of Nov. 23, 1909, in which the writer seconds Mr. D. L. Thomas in his criticism of Mr. Shanklin's article on Mexico, I wish to ask J. W. D. just two questions: 1. Has he read of the protests coming from thousands of American now living in Mexico against the articles entitled "On Barbarous Mexico" appearing in the American Magazine, September, November and December numbers, inclusive? 2. Has he or can he name anyone who can prove that they were ever offered 15-year-old girls by their parents for $20 or any sum? J. S. M.

Cost of Telephoning.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Watching with interest the action of the Drugists' Association and the Kinloch Telephone Co. about the slots on Kinloch phones, I am much gratified at the conclusion of the Kinloch company. I at one time was a subscriber for two Bells and one Kinloch phone, for which I paid for the two Bells about $6 per month. Not being in my office much, it was necessary for me to call up from three to ten times a day. Almost every time I wanted to call up either my residence or office I was compelled to dig down for a nickel. I made a memorandum of this and found I was averaging about 30 cents per day, besides paying a flat rate for my phones. This was more than I could stand to pay for my phones twice. So I made a resolution to do away with Bell phones and put in only free phones, or at least free to the public. I have found that the people have given me a greater number of calls, and my business has gained all of the time. A GAINER.

Safety in Mines.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
I think if each and every mine was required by law to have two or more openings other than the one for hoisting coal and each opening equipped with some means whereby men could get out if necessary, it would be much better than "safety" galleons. A "slope," if possible, whereby men can walk out of a mine, is by far the best. The Province of Nova Scotia, which has some of the largest coal mines in the world, and which I believe has the best mining laws in the world, all of their mines are equipped with two or more openings. If I understand the layout of the mine at "Cherry," it had two openings, a coal and man shaft combined, and a small air shaft, and to make it worse, the mine was so laid out that one shaft, or in other words, three mines with one shaft, or if that is not a man trap I don't know what is.

Someone has suggested the abandonment of underground stables. This is not at all necessary, as we have on the market today a lamp that is perfectly safe in stables or anywhere else, and why not use that? Ever since the days of Sir Humphrey Davy the miner can have his safety lamp. Today we have a lamp on the market that if in use there never need be even a match in the mine. "Lighters" can be placed anywhere in the mine and anyone can relight their lamp without the slightest danger. This same lamp can be so arranged that the "shot" can light his shot without using matches, and with this day to bear of a man handling a lamp in a mine with an open light in his cap is simply outrageous.

With regard to telephones in mines, they are necessary and all up-to-date mines have them. I have stood at the bottom of a mine 1100 feet deep and conversed with friends 800 miles away. Telephones may not prove to be a great benefit, but they have the injured get medical aid and the last rites of their church down in the bowels of the earth.

YOUNG MINER.

Economy in Cleveland.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
From an issue of the Cleveland Plain Dealer I learn that the Board of Public Service of that city has awarded the contract for the grease output of the city garbage plant for a 12-month period, commencing the 15th of this month, to a St. Louis firm. The amount of grease thus bargained for will aggregate something like $300,000 pounds and the city will receive for the grease approximately $152,000. The Board also reported the city states, $40,000 worth of commercial fertilizer, as having been sold.

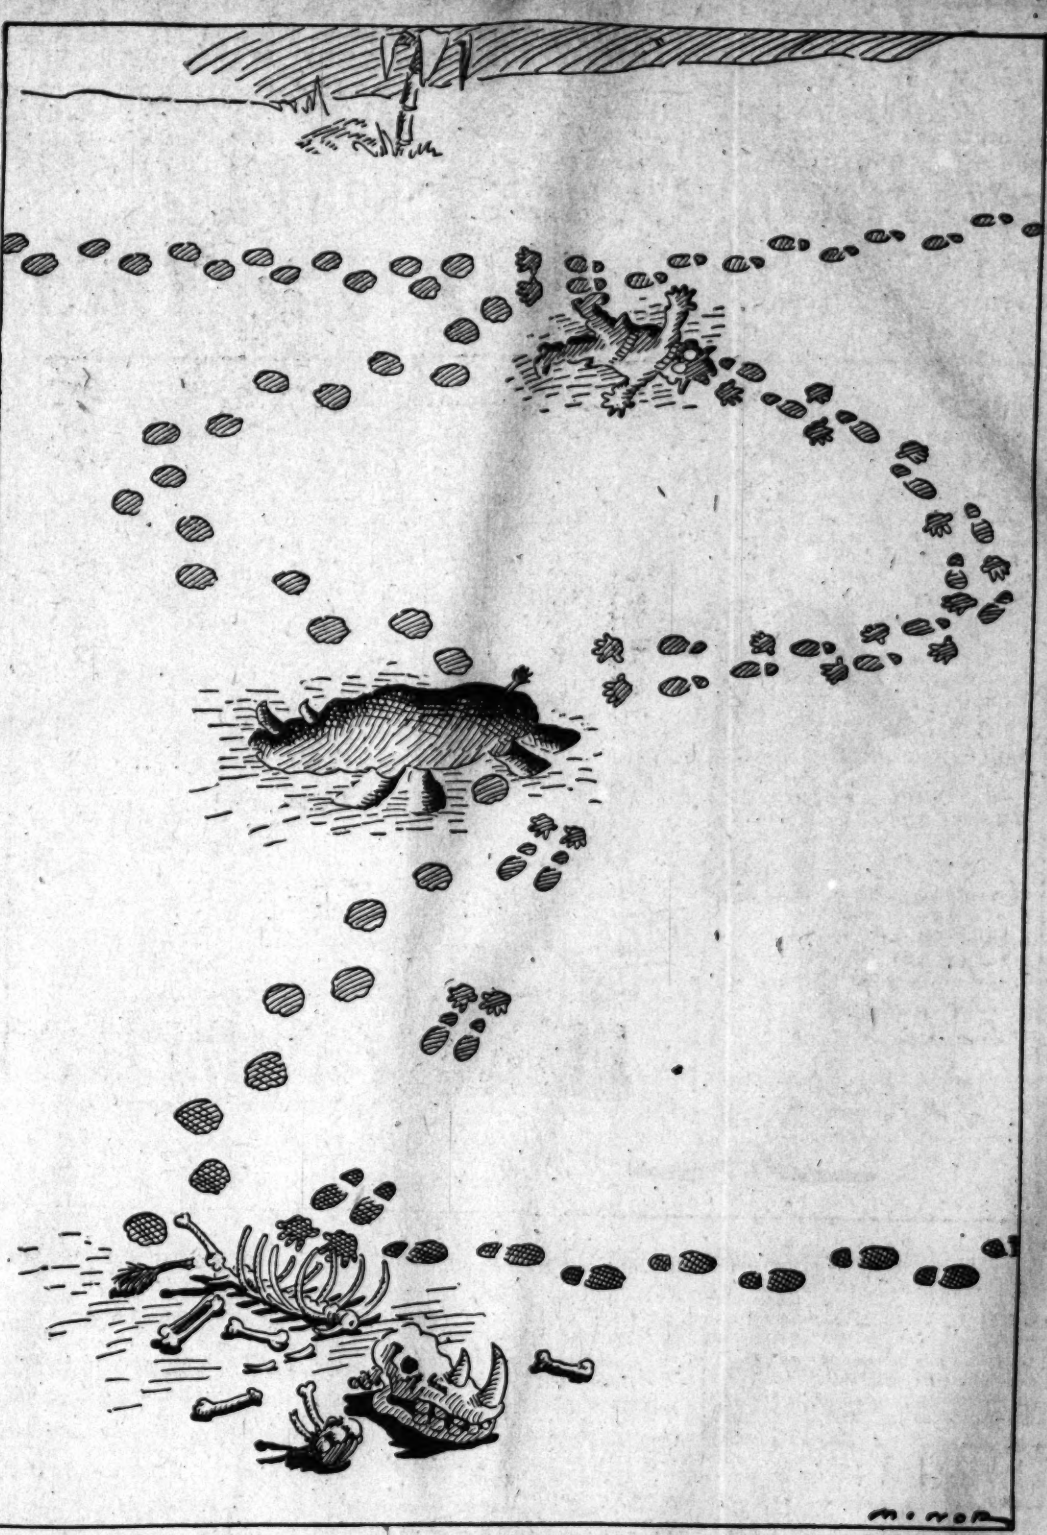

Some years ago, under the administration of Mayor Tom L. Johnson, the garbage reduction plant was taken over by the city, and the production of salable commodities from the reduced garbage heaps of the Ohio metropolis has been the plus policy of its administration ever since, the city collecting as well as reducing.

In addition to this remarkable yield, from a source that formerly yielded only a huge annual expense upon the public revenues of the city, $40,000 worth of fertilizer, as stated above, has been disposed of. Cleveland also has been able to haul away the garbage and rubbish, including waste paper and anything the private citizen desires to get rid of. Everything of any value is carefully picked out of the refuse thus gathered up and disposed of at a profit and consequent reduction of the expenses of maintenance of the department. For instance, in one year, to my knowledge, $200 worth of bottles, collected in this way, were sold. Thus we can readily comprehend what can be done by a progressive administration, honestly conducted in the interest of all of the people, if real public service is the prime incentive, and emolument and party supremacy the incidental which actuate those who seek political preferment at the hands of the voters.

Garbage collection, the reduction and the hauling away of ashes and rubbish and making the product derived therefrom pay a large portion, if not all the expenses, are not all of the good things accomplished under the administration of Mayor Johnson by any means. There are shelter houses at street car transfer points where, in the winter, the people can find comfort while waiting for the coming of the cars; there is what is called a "public comfort station" in the square, to which persons of both sexes may retire, both divisions being overseen by a man and woman, respectively, in charge, who keep the places clean and sanitary, supplying towels and lending assistance in many ways.

I mention just a few of the many advantages enjoyed by the people of Cleveland under those of St. Louis. The most important of all, I have neither the space nor the inclination to touch upon now. St. Louisans should awaken to the advantages thus denied them and make a long, continued and persistent "holier" and perhaps the politicians hereabouts might sit up and take notice. L. P. CUSTER.

TRACK RECORD OF AN AFRICAN TRAGEDY.

EDUCATION AND THE NEGRO.

William H. Taft in the Southern Workman.
The negro is absolutely essential to the development of the South. His labor the South needs, and the more you instruct that labor the more valuable the negro becomes to the South. Hence it is that the work of Hampton Institute has its intrinsic importance. It is the solution of the race question.

I do not believe, and I do not think most men believe, in too many crutches for people who are trying to learn to walk. But if you furnish them just enough education to know how to use their minds and their hands and their legs in productive occupations, you give them the instrument by which they can help themselves, and then if they are a race which has the spirit to help itself the future is before them and the opportunity is theirs.

Race feeling, race prejudice, is a fact, and a man who does not recognize it is just exactly as illogical as the man who says that ten millions of people now in the country cannot live with the other seventy millions who are here, when they are already living here. There is no reason why the negro should be kept in a state of inferiority by the fact of his being a negro. It is by saying that it ought not to exist, and that is part of the problem.

Now how are you going to wipe it out to the extent of making it so that it shall not produce injustice and a lack of harmony between the two races?

Well, I think you are going to work it out. I believe in my heart you are going to work it out by making it to the advantage and profit of both races to see that it is not to the advantage of either to allow that race feeling to continue to the extent of making it difficult for them to live together.

EUROPE'S BURDENS.

From the Detroit News.

Today Europe has, or can have on a moment's notice, more than 5,000,000 men under arms. This involves an annual expenditure of over $1,000,000,000. And this is in addition to paying interest on a European debt of about $15,000,000,000, calling for $1,000,000,000 annually. Let this fact sink into the brain, and the reason for the poverty that is driving so many across the Atlantic to become citizens of less oppressive governments will no longer remain a mystery. The interest on the debts and the annual military expenses of Europe waste fully take from the wealth producers more than $2,500,000,000 a year. Now add this to the ordinary expenses of government, and the wonder is that popular revolutions have not been produced.

BRAZIL DUTIES.

From the Philadelphia Press.

Brazil has some corking tariff duties—penalties, 21 per cent; screws, 34 per cent; iron racks, 60 per cent; iron bits, 50 per cent; school books, 55 per cent; key rings, 60 per cent; American canned vegetables pay duties of 24 per cent; canned fruits, 45; onions, 65.

WHAT WAS THE JOKE?

From the Pittsburgh Gazette.

An Evansville (Ind.) man laughed at a funny story until a doctor gave him an anesthetic. Most of the current humor is so harmless, however, that a child can be left alone with it with entire safety.

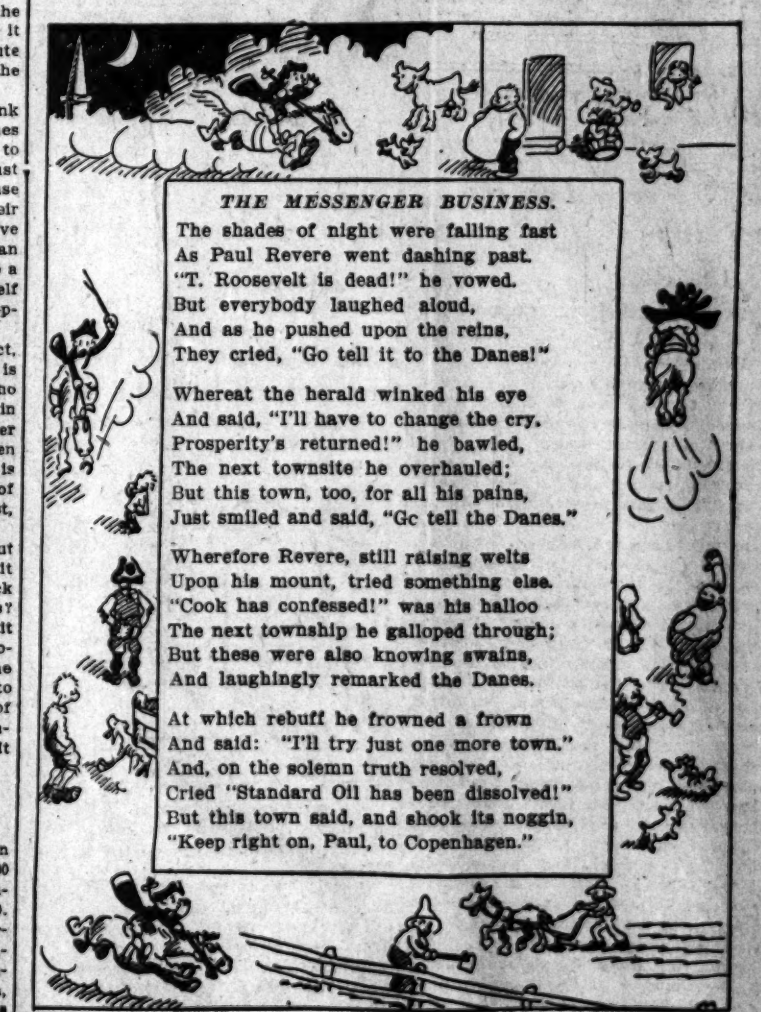

BIG BET OVERLOOKED.

From the Indianapolis News.

It is pretty hard to understand, under the circumstances, why some ingenious purveyor hasn't got a near-turkey on the market.

JUST A MINUTE.

Written for the Post-Dispatch by Clark McAdams.

THE MESSENGER BUSINESS.

The shades of night were falling fast
As Paul Revere went dashing past.
"T. Roosevelt is dead!" he vowed.
But everybody laughed aloud,
And as he pushed upon the reins,
They cried, "Go tell it to the Danes!"

Whereat the herald winked his eye
And said, "I'll have to change the cry.
Prosperity's returned!" he bawled,
The next townswite he overhauled;
But this town, too, for all his pains,
Just smiled and said, "Go tell the Danes."

Wherefore Revere, still raising welts
Upon his mount, tried something else.
"Cook has confessed!" was his halloo.
The next townswite he galloped through;
But these were also knowing swains,
And laughingly remarked the Danes.

At which rebuff he frowned a frown
And said: "I'll try just one more town."
And on the solemn train he resolved,
Cried "Standard Oil has been dissolved!"
But this town said, and shook its noggin,
"Keep right on, Paul, to Copenhagen."

SHIES AT THE PRIZE.

Missouri.

Missouri, thou Queen of the great Middle West,

Thy title is based on thy turbulent waters;

Brave men were thy founders, the noblest and best;

Thy women, the fairest of mothers and daughters!

Chorus.

If true to our motto: "United we stand;"

And true to the stars on the banner high o'er us;

And "Populi Salus," the law of the land;

Our safety and honor are brightest before us.

Thy skies are benignant and fertile thy soil,

Thy larders and garner o'erflow beyond measure.

Rewarding the farmer, the trafficker's toil

With health and contentment and bountiful treasure.

Thy surface resembles a broad, open sea,

Whose billows were halted in wildest commotion.

Then far away sinking to sleep on the lee

Of harbors beamed in from the roll of the ocean.

Thy iron, rolled out into parallel bars,

Have bound all thy worms and thy farms in communion;

Thy lead and thy mine and thy coal-laden cars.

Like sluttish, have woven the warp of thy union.

So, too, the rich chorus and blending of bells

From schoolhouse, from college, from factory and staple.

A story of culture and piety tells

Of progress and power, uplifting the people.

The Genius of history proudly recalls

Of great names, a roster in eminent station;

While faces look down from Memorial halls,

Distinguished and revered in State and Nation.

Long live thou and prosper, Missouri, the Queen.

From North, South and West to the Father of Waters;

Thy wealth and thy power, thy virtue be seen

As crowning with glory thy sons and thy daughters!

Constipation Cure Free

With the first signs of constipation you resort to the home methods of relief, such as hot or cold water on arising, lots of stewed fruit with your breakfast, etc., but what do you do when these fail?

The majority then start on salts and purgative waters, then change to cathartic pills, etc. If you have gone through these various stages you know they were all useless, so far as permanent results go. Now you should try just once again, but try something practical and sensible, a remedy made and intended for the purpose you are trying to accomplish. Such a remedy, as thousands can testify, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is guaranteed to be permanent in its results. Its ingredients are such that by a brief use of the stomach and bowel muscles are trained to again do their work normally, so that in the end you can do away with medicines of all kinds. That it will do this Mr. G. Y. Dodson of Sanville, Va., will gladly attest, and so will Mrs. S. A. Hampton of Portage, O.

To those who are still skeptical there is a way to prove these assertions without a penny of expense. Simply send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and obtain a free sample bottle. If you are then convinced it is the remedy you need, buy a fifty-cent or one dollar bottle of your druggist and continue its use until cured. The directions are simple and the dose is small; it is pleasant to the taste, does not grip and is promptly effective, and these statements are guaranteed or money will be refunded.

This remedy is over a quarter of a century old and is personally known by more druggists than any other similar remedy on the American continent. It is a pleasant, pure and pleasant taste it is the best laxative for children, women and old folks generally.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any further information you desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address to Dr. W. D. Caldwell, 1000 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

CHILDREN WITH SCARLET FEVER FOUND IN SCHOOL

Pupils at the Arlington Dismissed and Building Will Be Fumigated.

TOLD BY THE DOCTOR

Boy Knew He Had Contagious Disease—Brother and Sister Also Ill.

Following the discovery that children with scarlet fever have been attending the Arlington School, 1815 Burd avenue, the 850 pupils of the school were examined Wednesday by Health Department doctors for symptoms of the disease and were then sent home, so that the school building could be thoroughly fumigated.

Dr. James Stewart of the Health Department, making an inspection Tuesday at the Arlington, discovered that Clarence Lang, 12 years old, of 5628a Easton avenue had the disease. He said the boy was the matter with him and Clarence said he had scarlet fever. Dr. Stewart asked him how he knew and he said the doctor who had been treating him had told him so.

Dr. Stewart ordered Clarence and his six-year-old brother, Hugo, to go home. An investigation there later showed that Hugo and Mildred, three years old, also had the disease.

Many Pupils Have Disease.
The law requires all physicians to immediately report cases of scarlet fever to the Health Department. At the Lang home it was stated that a doctor from South Grand avenue has been treating Clarence.

Dr. Stewart says the failure of the doctor to report the scarlet fever case will be investigated. Seven Arlington pupils have taken the disease and one has died. Porch J. Brauer, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Brauer, 5528 North Market street, became ill the night before Thanksgiving and died Monday night. He was buried Wednesday.

John Lindhorst, 7 years old, 574 Kennerly avenue, is recovering from an attack that began a month ago. His brother, Frederick, now has the disease. Anna and Clara Buchanan, 11 and 8 years old, have been sick three weeks and are getting along all right. Raymond Newcomb, 5655 Cote Brilliante avenue, has been at the City Hospital two weeks.

Schools Pronounced Sanitary.
The parents of all these children think they caught the disease at school. The Arlington is only nine blocks from the Doster School, in which six cases were discovered a few days ago. Dorothy Cochran, who died a week ago, was a pupil of that school.

Dr. Stewart does not think that the epidemic is traceable to the schools. He thinks it is general. He attributes its spread, however, to the carelessness of parents and physicians who permit children who have it, or their brothers and sisters, to go to school. He pronounces both the Doster and Arlington schools perfectly sanitary.

Only one new case of scarlet fever was reported to the Health Department Wednesday.

ROCKEFELLER SCOFFS AT STORY OF PLOT AGAINST HIS LIFE

"Oh, Pshaw, There Is Nothing to It," He Declares Smilingly in New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—"O, pshaw," said John D. Rockefeller smilingly today as he alighted from a train from Cleveland and was told that he had been marked for kidnapping or perhaps killing in his home city. The president of the Standard Oil Co. was accompanied here by his wife, who is quite ill. "Why, there's nothing to that story at all," added Mr. Rockefeller. "It all seems to have been started because I did not make a speech I had promised at the Euclid Avenue Baptist Church in Cleveland. The condition of my wife's health prevented that; that's all. 'My wife is very sick and I came here at this time, instead of earlier, because of her health. I'm not the least bit worried about this story.'"

Harold S. Smith of Minerva, O., told the Cleveland police yesterday that he had overheard a plot in Alliance, O., to kidnap or kill Mr. Rockefeller.

IF YOU WALK ON HARDWOOD FLOOR IT IS AT YOUR RISK

Court Holds Owner Is Not Liable for Injury Caused by Fall.

A woman who slips on a polished hardwood floor and dislocates her kneecap and injures her spine, cannot recover damages from the owner of the building, according to a decision handed down Wednesday by Judge Adams in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. Miss Gertrude C. Hartman was employed as a stenographer by a firm that rented a suite in the Metropolitan Life Insurance Building at Minneapolis. The rug on the floor lacked eight inches of reaching the wall. In passing from one room to another Miss Hartman stepped on the polished floor and fell. She sued for $25,000.

A jury in the court of Judge Morris at Minneapolis gave her $6700. Judge Adams reverses the case on the ground that Judge Morris should have sustained the motion of the defense for a dismissal at the close of the plaintiff's case.

The St. Louis Dairy Co.'s Delicious FER-MIL-LAC Cultured Milk

a delightful substitute for the beverage which was wrecking their nerves and health.

A liquid, predigested food and tonic combined, it so invigorates and builds up the system that the old craving for harmful stimulants is entirely removed. Its constant use insures a healthy body, steady nerves and a clear head.

Yet FER-MIL-LAC is not a medicine. Simply a very delicious milk drink made from extra pure, rich, creamy milk, which, before being packed in the familiar clean green bottles, is processed or cultured by a scientific method. This not only gives it an entirely new flavor but increases its digestibility and makes it remarkably nourishing.

To prove its merits we wish that every tired man or woman, or delicate, undeveloped boy or girl would give it a fair

Seven-Day Test.

For one week drink FER-MIL-LAC three times daily; avoid tea, coffee and rich heavy foods. Take plenty of exercise, then Watch for Results. You will be surprised and delighted.

Order a case today. Telephones, Bomont 995, or Central 7490.
